Business winners selected by judges

A PANEL of distinguished judges including Newlife CEO Sheila Brown OBE have selected the winners of the 2013 Cannock Chase Business Awards.

More than 75 nominations were received for the 11 awards, each created to recognise excellence shown by a local Cannock Chase business.

The winning businesses will be announced at an official reception evening on Friday, October 25 at the Premier Suite in Cannock.

Overwhelmed

This year's event follows last year's inaugural ceremony, organised by Chase MP Aidan Burley in partnership with The Best of Cannock's Steve Mallows.

Mr Burley said: "I would like to thank all those businesses who have entered this year's awards."

"I have been overwhelmed by the reaction and I know that the judges found it extremely difficult to pick the 11 winners."

"These Awards are my attempt to highlight the unsung businesses in Cannock Chase which are the life blood of our economy."

Mr Mallows said: "Cannock Chase really does have some excellent businesses and acknowledging them is, I believe, very important."

Man airlifted for treatment

AN emergency helicopter landed in Cannock to take a man to hospital.

The Warwickshire & Northamptonshire Air Ambulance was called to a home in the town at 3.32pm on Tuesday. A 53-year old who had become unwell and needed transfer to a neurological hospital.

The patient, who had had no previous medical issues, had developed a severe headache and had become confused and agitated.

He was airlifted to University Hospital north Staffordshire

FRESH FEARS OVER IVY HOUSE FUTURE

AN historic Cannock building is once again under threat of demolition – just months after residents thought they had thwarted the plans.

The 143-year-old Ivy House site in Wolverhampton Road is being earmarked for development under new proposals by Wrekin Housing Trust.

The former hospital could make way for 12 affordable homes and four apartments – prompting an outcry from residents who fear the town's heritage is being torn up.

Previous plans to knock down the Ivy House were shelved by Staffordshire County Council in March after more than 1,000 people signed a petition against the work.

Disappointed

The development is linked to a new health park and assisted living complex that was granted permission at the former Langbourn House site nearby this year.

It has now emerged that Ivy House was sold by Staffordshire County Council to Wrekin Housing Trust this year subject to planning.

Margaret Price, aged 68, is campaigning to save the Victorian building. She said: "We are not surprised to see that Ivy House's future is now in doubt again. However, we are very disappointed."

"Ivy House is one of the only existing historic buildings and it is important that we do all we can to save it."

She added: "More than 1,000 fought to stop the building being bulldozed in a very short amount of time."

"We thought it would only be a matter of time before we were faced with this again."

"It is such a beautiful building and is Cannock's history."

Staffordshire County Council, which used to have

its social services team based in the building, previously said it was costing taxpayers £100,000 to maintain.

Parts of Ivy House date back to 1870 when it was built as the Penkridge Poor Law Union's Workhouse. It later became The Chase Hospital.

Wrekin Housing Trust is working with developer Galliford Try on the scheme.

A flyer about the proposals states: "Twelve three-bed family dwellings and four apartments are being proposed, fronting onto Wolverhampton Road."

"The dwellings themselves follow the wider residential context of the area and have allocated parking provision."

Locals can view plans and ask questions on the scheme at drop-in sessions at St Stephens Church, Bideford Way, Cannock, next week. They are being held from 10am to noon on October 15 and from 4-6pm the following day. There will also be a formal event on October 23 from 6.30-7.30pm at The civic centre ballroom, Beecroft Road.

A planning application will subsequently be submitted. More details can be found at www.wrekinhousingtrust.org.uk/cannock

Make a dash to raise Newlife cash

At the launch of the Newlife Santa Dash, Nora Smith from Newlife, Andy and Cody-Jo Aldred, Aidan Burley MP, Alicia Milligan from Chase Leisure and front Alastair Payne

DOZENS of Santas will be dashing through a town centre to raise funds for a good cause.

Organisers of the fourth annual Santa Dash in Cannock are asking people to sign up as quickly as they can for the challenge.

Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley has already agreed to take part in the Newlife Foundation run on December 14.

The charity's fundraising manager, Nora Smith, said: "We want to make the Newlife Santa Dash bigger and better than last year so we are urging people to put the date in their diaries and sign up as soon as possible."

"It's a great opportunity for individuals as well as families, groups of work colleagues, students and even health and leisure club members to get together for a bit of festive fun."

Festive

"It only takes an hour of your time and it's a real party atmosphere."

Runners, joggers and walkers are invited to join in the one-mile festive run to raise money to support disabled and terminally ill children.

Mr Burley said: "I am delighted to be taking part in the Newlife Santa Dash for the first time this year."

"Christmas is the perfect time to do something fun that also changes children's lives."

The entry fee is £5 and all participants will be asked to raise £30 in sponsorship.

Newlife will provide every participant with a Santa suit.

Addict who stole from parents is sent to jail

A CHRONIC heroin addict who plundered his parents' home to pay off drug dealers was jailed for 16 months.

Ashley Lawton had been ejected and banned from the house in Burntwood after repeated thefts of property.

His parents had even put a lock on their bedroom door to prevent his thieving. But on August 30 he burgled the property using a key he had kept, kicked open the bedroom door and stole cash and jewellery totalling around £10,000.

String

Mr Robert Edwards, prosecuting at Stafford Crown Court, said Lawton had also kept a bank card that he used 17 times to steal a total of £1,638.

When the offences were reported to the police, Lawton's mother also revealed a string of thefts of goods totalling more than £7,000.

"His mother and stepfather are at their wits end as a result of his heroin addiction," said Mr Edwards.

Lawton, aged 27, formerly of Chase Road, admitted burglary, theft and making false representations.

Mr Stephen Bailey, defending, said: "He is beginning to realise the harm in his behaviour, not only to himself, but to others. The motive for the burglary was threats from his dealers."

Fans on road to Cup glory

TWO Tyneside football fans arrive at Hedgesford Town as they continue their 'Cup Running' journey.

Andy Fury, aged 30, and Mark Tearney, 34, are following the winner of each game they see. Their travels began at Tow Law Town in August and reaches Keys Park on Saturday as the Pitmen take on West Auckland.

When their journey is complete, the pair will pen a book, called Pies, Peas and Dreams.

GERMAN ELECTRIC HEATING IS THE ANSWER

This incredible heating could be the answer to help beat the ever increasing energy costs and amazingly, it is not, gas or oil, or solid fuel - but electric! It's clean, Simple to install, Powerful, Economical, and EVER! All you need is a normal electricity supply and a plug socket and NO standard tariff like economy seven.

In Germany, Austria, Eastern Europe and even America, more and more people are choosing to heat their homes and offices with this very special form of electric heating in preference to gas, oil, LPG or any other form of conventional central heating or economy seven.

Here in the Midlands more and more of our customers are making that same decision and when you see this incredible heating for yourself, you could be next!

The heating looks just like a conventional radiator, but STOP! It is very, very different!

Put simply, the clunky central heating boiler needing constant servicing and replacement parts isn't the only choice any more!

Now you can choose to heat your homes, offices, extensions or conservatories with this incredible German heating which provides individual control over every single room without the need for a central control or space to site a boiler. Now the boiler space can also become a storage area!

Installation takes minutes and running is completely clean, there is no danger of leakage, no holes through walls, no floorboards up and no tradesmen trundling around the house wielding pipe cutters, hammers, wrenches and dirty work boots. This incredible heating, simply plugs in and that's it! Job Done! You can even do just one room or the whole house!

Resource centre officially unveiled

A NEW resource centre based at an historic building in Cannock has been officially unveiled.

Sir Julian House in Walsall Road, Bridgton, named after a member of the prominent Whitehouse family that lived there, was officially unveiled by county council chairman Ian Lawson and Age UK South Staffordshire chairman Hazel Moss. Among those in attendance were visitors from the care and voluntary sector and NHS. Age UK South Staffordshire will use the building to provide activities for people with dementia and other complex needs.

Known as the Cannock Resource Centre, it will complement existing facilities at Penkridge and Tamworth. It can cater for 90 places, with activities including songs, music, games, quizzes and talks as well as demonstrations and crafts all on offer.

Door-to-door transport is offered as well as three meals and refreshments during the day. A try before you buy option is available before signing up to become a regular guest.

For further information contact 01785 788 477.

Takeover in jeopardy over funding shortfall

HEALTH bosses due to take over the running of Stafford Hospital have cast doubt on the plans, claiming there is a shortfall of £125 million to make the shake-up a reality.

In addition, Walsall Healthcare NHS Trust says it would require £14m to increase the Manor Hospital's capacity should it take patients from Cannock.

Nearly 3,000 respond to consultation on proposals

ALMOST 3,000 people submitted written responses to an official consultation on plans for the futures of Stafford and Cannock Chase hospitals.

Trust Special Administrators who have drawn up proposals to strip services from Stafford and boost provision at Cannock are now considering the replies before submitting their final report to health watchdog Monitor.

Health Secretary Jeremy Hunt will make a final decision by December 31.

Under draft plans Stafford will lose its maternity unit and in-patient paediatric care while critical care will be downgraded.

The shake-up would see University Hospital of North Staffordshire take over the running of Stafford with Wolverhampton and Walsall health trusts vying to take over Cannock Chase Hospital in Brunswick Road site, under the plans.

TSA Alan Bloom said: "We are delighted to say that we have received in total over 2,800 responses, which we will consider along with the issues raised at the numerous meetings that we have attended during the consultation period."

University Hospital of North Staffordshire (UHNS) said the proposals were financially unsustainable.

Bosses believe they would need to spend £67m bringing Stafford up to scratch by improving buildings and equipment – and a further £58m extending its site in Stoke-on-Trent to take on extra patients.

UHNS, which would take over Stafford under draft proposals from Trust Special Administrators, has said that 'unless the trust receives the level of funding required we will be unable to run safe, high-quality services at Stafford'.

Critical

UHNS revealed its response to the TSA's plans, which would see Stafford Hospital stripped of its maternity unit and face the withdrawal of inpatient paediatric care, while critical care would be downgraded.

Health Secretary Jeremy Hunt will make a final decision by December 31. In its official response, UHNS says the TSA's plan for the trust to make 8.5 per cent of savings each year at Stafford for three years would be 'unachievable'.

Stafford MP Jeremy Lefroy said: "Moving maternity, critical care and inpatient paediatrics to Stoke doesn't make sense in the eyes of our constituents."

Under the draft plans, the Royal Wolverhampton Hospitals NHS Trust, which runs New Cross Hospital, would take over services from Cannock Hospital.

A bald move to help charity

A MOTHER-of-two proved a snip of the old locks as she had her head shaved for charity.

Rebecca Gocmen underwent the close shave so she can donate her flowing locks to make wigs for children with cancer.

Rebecca Gocmen, of Chadsmoor, took the decision to shave her head so her hair can be donated to The Little Princess Trust. The charity gives wigs to children who have lost their hair through chemotherapy.

She has also raised more than £640, with some of the sponsorship money still to be collected.

The 29-year-old from Hardie Green says the headshave – which saw a total of 16 inches taken off her hair – took just 15 minutes.

Mrs Gocmen came up with the idea after her aunt was diagnosed with breast cancer and was forced to have both breasts removed. A family friend of Mrs Gocmen's was also diagnosed with lung and liver cancer in the same week.

Mrs Gocmen said: "I know a lot of people who have been affected with cancer. It really is a terrible experience. But all you can really do is support them."

Mrs Gocmen had a number of people to thank after the bald move, including her cousins and her dad, Brian Hodgkiss, who works for electrical contractors CEF. He ditched out sponsorship forms at work and to his customers, while teachers at West Hill Primary School in Hednesford also donated.

Chadsmoor restaurant FiftyTwo also offered their support. Anyone else wishing to sponsor Mrs Gocmen can visit www.justgiving.com/rebecca-gocmen1

Thief took phones in changing room raid

A THIEF who stole mobile phones and cash from a football club's changing rooms has been spared an immediate jail term.

Callum Hill entered the premises at Hednesford Town's Keys Park ground at around 7.15pm on August 8 – initially to use the toilet.

But after spotting the changing room doors unlocked, he stole mobile phones worth more than £500 each and £65 in cash. Hill, aged 19, of Cheval Avenue, Coventry, had intended to sell the items, the court heard.

Prosecutor John Peel said: "A worker from the club saw Mr Hill and an accomplice attempting to leave. He grabbed Mr Hill, a struggle took place and various items fell out of his pockets."

He said Hill did not identify his accomplice so some items were still missing.

Mr Paul Jenkins, defending, said Hill was under the influence of someone else and wanted to cut ties with certain associates.

Hill pleaded guilty to theft and was given a 10-week jail term suspended for a year, was told to pay £735 in compensation, £65 costs and an £80 victim surcharge. He was also ordered to carry out 150 hours unpaid work.

Readers to see Rat Pack

THREE Chronicle readers have won tickets to the Rat Pack Vegas Spectacular at the Prince of Wales Centre.

The show is at the Church Street venue on Sunday (October 13) and the three lucky recipients of a pair tickets each are: Sue Day, of Rugeley, Eric Ellis of Burntwood and David Law of Cannock.

They answered the question correctly in The Chronicle of September 26 and were the first three drawn out of the hat.

Classical music

AN evening of light Classical music, performed by Walsall Symphony Orchestra, is being staged at a Burntwood church on Saturday, November 9. Doors open at 7pm for a 7.30pm start at St John's Community Church, in High Street, Chase Terrace. Tickets are £7 with proceeds to the church and orchestra. Light refreshments will be served in the interval.

Tee off for golf academy

PGA professionals Michael Beaumont and Alison Nicholas will relaunch the Hawkesyard estate golf academy later this month.

It will be relaunched with an open day, teeing off at 1pm on Saturday, October 19. It will feature free dedicated taster golf lessons for all ages and levels.

Nicholas, previously ranked no.8 best lady golfer in the world, has won more than 20 tour events, including two Majors. Beaumont is an experienced golf instructor and coaches the Staffordshire County Golf Union. He has worked with many elite golfers, including European Tour players Tom Whitehouse and Sam Walker.

"We want to introduce golf to juniors at an early age of four years plus," he said. "While golf is a very skilled, controlled sport it can also be great for building key motor development skills."

Those taking free lessons on the day have the chance to secure limited places on the initial Golf Academy Programme due to start on October 26.

Clothing is relaxed and all clubs and equipment will be provided for juniors. Green fees on the 18 hole course are available for just £10 per round per person on the day.

Restaurant fundraiser

A CANNOCK restaurant has handed over a cheque for £700 to Birmingham Children's Hospital.

Tony Uddin, owner of the Dilshad in Cannock Road, Chasmoor, presented the cheque to Professor Anita Macdonald, the hospital's consultant metabolic dietician. The money has been collected at a fundraising evening to mark the award-winning restaurant's grand reopening and will go to the inherited metabolic disorders unit of the hospital.

Mr Uddin said: "It is a pleasure to hand over the cheque. We are delighted to fundraise for Birmingham Children's Hospital because it is such a fantastic cause."

Coffee morning

CHADSMOOR Tapestry Group hosts a coffee morning this weekend at Chasmoor Methodist Church. It takes place from 10.30am to noon on Saturday. There will also be craft and gift stalls, a tombola and raffle. Admission is free and all proceeds will go to the church.

Open day to attract rural entrepreneurs

The first cohort of students at the Rural Enterprise Academy

THE UK's only dedicated land-based academy has held its first open day of the academic year.

The Rural Enterprise Academy, situated on a 180-hectare site, opened its doors to the first batch of students in September 2012.

An initiative developed by South Staffordshire College, the NFU and Veolia, The Rural Enterprise Academy is based at South Staffordshire College's Rodbaston Campus.

The Open Evening was held for Year 10 and Year 12 students considering enrolment in September 2014 and provided students and parents with the opportunity to find out more about life at the academy, meet tutors, listen to presentations and take tours of the facilities.

The tour was conducted by a current student.

Students enjoy a full academic programme that incorporates GCSEs, BTECs, including land and animal courses, while also taking part in Young Enterprise.

Extra-curricular activities include horse riding, horse care, Zoo Club, game bird management, farm duties and a range of countryside and conservation pastimes.

Principal Lorraine Makin said: "Our aim is to create a mix of academic achievement and practical life-skills that will make the Rural Enterprise Academy graduates sought-after in the world of work."

Potential students and parents wanting to find out more are encouraged to come to the next open event on Tuesday, October 15 at 6pm.

More details can be found at www.ruralenterpriseacademy.co.uk or call 01785 333360.

Summer heatwave blamed as number of blazes on rise

THE number of outdoor fires across Staffordshire this summer has soared - with the summer heatwave being blamed.

Fire service bosses say the hot weather is behind the increase between April and June this year, compared to the same period in 2012.

As temperatures soared, firefighters noticed an increase in blazes. Many happen in bins when people dispose of barbecue coals.

Figures also show the number of fires involving property and casualties for April to June 2013 was 349, a fall of nine compared to the same quarter in 2012/13.

There were 128 accidental house fires between April and June 2013, an increase of six when compared to the same period in 2012/13.

Rain

The number of small fires excluding grass increased from 326 to 378 when compared to the same period in 2012/13. The number of grass fires rose between April and June 2013, tripling from 164 to 501.

Head of risk reduction for the county's fire service Glynn Luzny said: "We have been lucky enough to have enjoyed a fairly long, hot summer this year, particularly when compared to 2012 when we experienced lots of rain."

"The hot weather brings with it an increase in small fires as people are out and about and the opportunity for this type of blaze to occur, either accidentally or deliberately, is far greater."

by Adam Burling

"We have been increasingly proactive in engaging with young people across Staffordshire and Stoke-on-Trent in recent years, educating them on the dangers of setting fire to rubbish bins and such like."

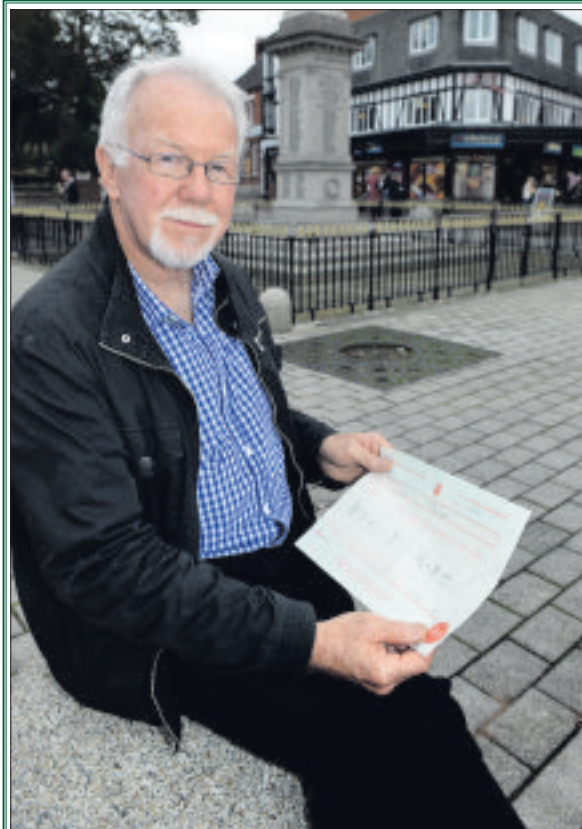

Meanwhile, a shared service linking Staffordshire and West Midlands fire services' response systems has gone live.

Staffordshire is now using the Vision system, which was already running in the West Midlands, to record and monitor incidents and mobilise crews.

Staffordshire Chief Fire Officer Peter Dartford says the new technology could speed up response times.

The two services are to merge their command centres, reverting to a single base at the West Midlands' headquarters on Vauxhall Road in Birmingham from next spring.

Under the shake up, the existing 101 posts across the two centres will be reduced to 76. Fire chiefs say the merger will also save taxpayers £500,000.

Stewart Ross from New Zealand, but formerly of Great Wyrley, is trying to trace his half brother Melvyn. He is with his half brother's birth certificate Brother, where are you now?

AN ARCHITECT is appealing for help to trace his long lost half-brother.

Stewart Ross, aged 69, was born in Great Wyrley in 1944, but now lives in New Zealand.

For 45 years he thought he only had a sister, but after his father's death in 1989, he discovered he also has a half-brother. He has now returned to the area to try to track him down.

He said: "After my father died, my mother told me all about my half-brother, Melvyn James Simpson."

"My father, Bruce Ross, came to live in Cannock from New Zealand before the war and since his death, I have found out that he had a relationship with a woman called Rosa Simpson."

"Rosa was a cashier at the local cinema and lived in Walsall Road. Together they had Melvyn in December 1939. Melvyn was born in Dartmouth Road."

"During that time, my mother and father were pen-pals. She came to the UK to join him that year and they married in 1940."

"Rosa ended up marrying a man named Harold Hayward in 1942 so it may be that Melvyn's surname was changed."

Mr Ross has been trying to trace his half-brother with the help of Megan Owens, a family history researcher who works behind the scenes on BBC1's Who Do You Think You Are?

NEWS in brief

Market owners' indoor pitch plan

THE owners of Penkridge Market plan to convert an existing building into five individual units, granting traders a permanent indoor pitch.

Matt Williams, manager of the market, off the A449, said: "They will provide a secure lockable space for traders to leave their stock and give customers a dry, warm area to browse their goods."

Trading days at the market, on Wednesdays and Saturdays, attract up to 5,000 visitors.

Work on the new units should start in the next few weeks, with an estimated completion date of early in the New Year.

Units will be allocated on a 'first come, first served basis' and owners hope to attract some new stall holders, selling fishing tackle, haberdashery and a florist.

For further information on securing a pitch at the Market, call 01785 714221 or visit www.penkridge-market.co.uk

IT WAS wrong of the Daily Mail to accuse Ed Miliband's Marxist father of hating Britain – especially when the only hard evidence came from a diary Ralph Miliband wrote when he was just 17. I shudder at the thought of being judged by anything I wrote at 17. To be damned by something your father wrote in his teens is grotesquely unfair.

AND yet, as Enoch Powell once observed, a politician complaining about the Press is like a ship's captain complaining about the sea. Politics is a dirty game but all the players are volunteers. The first rule is that once you sign up, people will want to know everything about you. Ed Miliband could be the next prime minister, leading a nuclear-armed nation of 60 million. He deserves exactly the same level of scrutiny as any other prime minister-in-waiting. In a perfect world a politician's dead parents would not be fair game. But remember the scorn, the sneering, the cartoons, the Spitting Image gags when the Left discovered to its glee that the Tory leader John Major was the son of a one-time circus performer? What's sauce for the Majors is sauce for the Milibands.

IN THE week in which all eyes focused on the Marxist beliefs of Ed Miliband's father, the eternal battle between capitalism and socialism was spluttering in our universities. And not all the staff are happy about it. Plashing Vole, the excellent website run by Wolverhampton University lecturer Aidan Byrne, reports on a ghastly David Brent-style "team-building" day foisted on unhappy staff by the uni management. The worst bit, apparently, was not the enforced singing nor the obligatory coloured T-shirts, nor even the lecture on "positivity", but the Thatcherite banner which suddenly appeared on the lecture screen, urging them: "Be creative, grow the business, make money." Byrne observes despairingly: "This is the slogan of the estate agency or the boiler room, not a seat of learning."

THIS week it was announced that the British Army is recruiting reservists who are IT experts to wage war in cyberspace. Without a shot being fired, a new generation of squaddies will slip hugely complex viruses into enemy computers, wrecking their infrastructure. Obviously, platoons of cyber-warriors will have to be organised into a new regiment. The Queen's Own Geeks?

A LITTLE sign in the window tells us our local butcher is to close. There has been a butcher's shop in those premises for more than a century. Now, it is making way for a patisserie. Across the road, our old bank has become a beauty parlour. It reflects a consumer society where traditional food and personal service make way for a rather pointless battle between cakes which threaten to make you fat and beauticians who promise to make you thin.

THE strangest complaint during the Fire Brigades Union strike was the firefighter moaning on Radio 4 that she had expected a 30-year career and it now looked like becoming a 40-year career. Comrades, this is an outrage. Let us raise the scarlet banner high to fight the monstrous imposition of a job for life.

Residents show they love their street

RESIDENTS in Chadsmoor took full advantage of a scheme to love their street.

Following the success of the 'Love Your Street' initiative in Brereton last year, Cannock Chase Council joined forces with Chase Council for Voluntary Services to roll out the scheme within the Chadsmoor area.

A packed programme of activities was carried out over three days in Benion Road, Wrights Avenue, Central Avenue, Princess Street, Rigby Drive, Woodford End, Redhill Road and Byron Place. A celebration event was held on the Wrights Avenue park, with activities including Beat the Shark, face painting, arts and crafts and bouncy castle.

Litter picks were carried out by McDonald's staff and home fire risk checks were made by Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service. Residents were also given crime prevention advice with a particular focus on illegal money lending.

Councillor Mike Holder, portfolio holder for crime and partnerships said: "I am pleased to bring the initiative to Chadsmoor."

Villagers' protests fail
as waste plant granted

PLANNERS have given the go-ahead for a £20 million waste plant in Huntington – to the dismay of hundreds of protesters who had fought against it.

The controversial plans caused uproar among villagers who compiled two petitions containing around 850 signatures demanding it to be scrapped.

by Kirsten Rawlins

But members of Staffordshire County Council's planning committee last Thursday gave the green light for the development in Cocksparrow Lane.

They said that no objections had been received from Staffordshire's highways department or Environmental Health and that if they turned down the application it would likely be approved on appeal.

Appalling

South Staffordshire MP Gavin Williamson, who had also opposed the plans, said granting the development was 'an appalling decision'.

The application facing the council was to renew planning permission for the 200ft-high plant on the former Littleton Colliery site.

The plant would break down green waste, and possibly food, into fertiliser and methane, as well as produce electricity for the National Grid.

Councillor Ian Lawson told the meeting that, while he does not like the plans, there was a need for such a facility in Staffordshire.

"This is something we need across the county whether we like it or not," he said. The application was passed subject to more than 40 conditions. But nearby residents say they feel they have been 'let down'.

Mark Hough, who lives in Stafford Road, Huntington, said: "A site like this next to a brand new school is ludicrous."

Mr Williamson vowed to continue the fight against the digester plant.

He said: "This is a totally inappropriate site for a digestion facility."

Choral group on the hunt for new singers

NEW singers are needed at a Cannock group. The Chase Choral Society Mixed Voice Choir have vacancies for tenors and bass singers.

The choir, under the directorship of Derek Bailey, enjoys singing a variety of music from choral, stage and popular songs. They perform at church fundraising concerts, at weddings and funerals, and many private functions.

There are no age restrictions and no auditions required. Practice evenings are held at St Luke's School in New Penkridge Road, Cannock on Wednesdays 7.30 to 9.15pm during term time.

Call the secretary on 01543 270690 for more details or booking enquiries.

Descent is plan (ab)seiling

Hermione Arblaster, aged 15 during her descent down the New Walsall Art Gallery

FEARLESS fundraisers descended a landmark building for a support group which helps children with hearing difficulties.

Among those taking part for Walsall Deaf Children's Society was 15-year-old Hermione Arblaster and her mother Juliette of Heath Hayes. Ten supporters in all donned harnesses and helmets to abseil down the New Walsall Art Gallery, raising £2,200. Hermione, a pupil at Cardinal Griffin RC High School, was taking part as he sister Eris, aged nine, is profoundly deaf. Hermione said: "We all did it successfully and it was great fun."

"We attend the support group with Eris. It helps her to play and talk in sign language to other deaf children. My mother Juliette and myself raised more than £200."

The family are among six who currently attend support meetings held at The Anchor Inn, in Chester Road, Brownhills, on the first Monday of the month from 6pm.

Parking machine
take 20p

THEEVES have struck at Cannock's cinema for the second time in two weeks, smashing up the car park pay machine – to steal 20p.

The damage caused to the pay-and-display device at The Electric Palace Picture House in Walsall Road is estimated to be in the region of £1,000.

The vandals pulled out the interior workings of the apparatus.

Leaseholder Graeme Cotton said: "We empty the machine every night. Parking is free on a Sunday so there would have been nothing inside, except perhaps a stray 20p from someone who didn't realise there was no charge."

The attack on September 29 follows a burglary at the cinema on September 15 when a pair of £700 speakers were stolen along with power tools being used to give the building a six-figure facelift.

Renovation work which started three months ago, has been put on hold while the new damage is put right.

Staffordshire Police are investigating.

Mr Cotton, aged 33, said: "To be targeted twice in a fortnight is hard to take in. We're still counting the cost of the last attack."

Sign up for a town update

RESIDENTS in Rugeley can sign up to a mailing list to receive updates on events and meetings.

Councillor John Rowley, chairman of Rugeley Town Council, wants to see more members of the public at town council meetings.

He said: "If we had a long list of people who wanted to be contacted by email then we could keep them better informed. It will benefit everyone."

Anyone living in Rugeley or Brereton interested should send an email to Councillor.Rowley@clerk@rugeleytowncouncil.gov.uk

Meeting to be held on scheme for 140 homes

A SECOND public meeting is to be staged over controversial plans to build more than 140 homes between Cheslyn Hay and Great Wyrley.

Opponents will tomorrow (Friday) get the chance to voice their resistance to the development, earmarked for land off Landywood Lane.

Agents for the builder Ken Lees have been invited to speak at Cheslyn Hay village hall, Pinfold Lane. Cheslyn Hay parish council has arranged the meeting, which starts at 7.30pm.

County councillor Kath Perry said it was a step in the right direction following an outcry about the plan.

Questions

"It doesn't hurt to listen and this is a very controversial issue," she said.

She said only councillors would be allowed to put questions to the developers.

Last month around 150 residents from both villages took over a parish council meeting at Great Wyrley to air their opposition.

They are concerned about increased traffic, pressure on schools and the impact on wildlife. Others raise fears it would remove the last green space between Cheslyn Hay and Great Wyrley, destroying the villages' separate identities.

Support for Parkinson's

A NEW support group for people suffering with Parkinson's disease has been set up in Hednesford.

The first meeting of Chase Parkinson's Group is being held on Monday, October 28 at the Aquarius Ballroom in Victoria Street.

The group will meet on the last Monday of every month between 7.30-9pm. There will normally be a guest speaker each month.

For more details call Geoff Chandler on 01543 425819 or 07900 924206.

Money-spinner

A ZUMBA instructor is holding her annual breast cancer fundraiser this month. Emily Chetter, who has been teaching Zumba for four years in Penkridge and Stafford, stages a Zumbathon each year. It takes place this year at the Monckton Recreation Centre, Pinfold Lane, Penkridge, from 7-8pm on Monday, October 28. Call 07527354413 for more.

Youngsters can play cards right in festive contest

Aidan Burley MP with last year's winner, Hannah Seaman of Bridgtown Primary

SCHOOLCHILDREN have been invited to design Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley's Christmas card. Mr Burley has this week launched the competition, sponsored by local employment firm Perpetua People Development Group (PPDG).

Since being elected in 2010, Mr Burley, has broken with the tradition of using the standard parliamentary Christmas card and instead decided to showcase the talent of schoolchildren from across the constituency.

The MP has written to every Cannock Chase primary school inviting pupils to take part. The competition this year has a theme of 'Winter Wildlife of Cannock Chase'.

The winning design chosen by Mr Burley and his team will be made into a professional published card and sent as the MP's official Christmas card to 500 recipients including local schools, businesses, charities, colleagues and friends throughout the constituency – as well as the Prime Minister at 10 Downing Street.

The winner will have their name, age and school printed on the inside front page of the card and will also receive a framed copy of their winning effort, a certificate and a present from the House of Commons.

The closing date for entries is Friday, November 8 and they can be submitted by hand or post to the MP Help Zone at 6 High Green Court, Newhall Street, Cannock, WS11 1GR. All entries should be A5 size (portrait or landscape) and drawn.

Mr Burley said: "This is the fourth year in a row I have held this competition and each year I am overwhelmed by the reaction and the standard of entries. I would like to wish all of my young constituents the very best of luck."

Phil Pemble of PPDG said: "It's becoming a tradition in schools across Cannock Chase to find the design that lands on the doormat of so many important people and one we're delighted to be involved with."

10p parking trial agreed to boost trade in town centres

COUNCILLORS have backed plans to slash parking to a nominal 10p rate in Cannock and Rugeley.

The district council's leader claims the move could attract thousands of shoppers to town centres.

Client base extended as company in takeover

A CANNOCK firm of chartered accountants has taken over a long-established practice in Burton, and invested funds to bring it in line with its two existing offices.

Rice & Co, founded more than 50 years ago, bought out Burton-based Ayre & Co, and promoted Tom Richards from their Uttoxeter office to run the office in Curzon Street.

Chris Stonier, director of the company, based at Rumer Hill Business Estate, said he was delighted to have extended the firm's client base even further. Senior employees from Ayre & Co have been retained and more accounting staff may be recruited.

Mr Stonier said Rice & Co had invested significant funds following the takeover to rebrand the office and update computers, servers and software.

"Ayre & Co were a well-established firm in Burton with a great reputation, and especially renowned for their work with small and growing businesses," he said. "We feel the two companies have a similar ethos of friendly professionalism."

The trial will run at car parks in Avon Road, Cannock and Forge Road, Rugeley. The new rate represents a 97 per cent reduction on current prices.

A meeting of Cannock Chase Council's town centre regeneration policy development committee gave the proposals the go ahead on Tuesday – giving the green light for a six-month pilot to start.

The fee will come in for parking after 3pm on weekdays and will apply to drivers parking up between 3pm and when the car parks close at 6.30pm.

Attracted

The trial will be launched between January and June – and district council leader George Adamson said previous projects across the country suggested thousands of new shoppers could be attracted.

Rolling out the pilot across all car parks would cost Cannock's council at least £90,000 a year – and Councillor Adamson says that must be weighed up against the potential boost to businesses.

He said: "We want to encourage as many people as possible to visit our town centres and looking at figures from other towns, there is a suggestion that the number of visitors could increase significantly."

The move comes as it emerged council bosses are predicting a £30,000 shortfall in parking income this year.

Pupils show the red card to author

Football book author Tom Palmer with pupils from Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School

YOUNGSTERS showed author Tom Palmer the red card when he visited their school to talk about his football-themed books and have a kickabout.

But it was all done in good humour as the pupils enjoyed his visit to Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School. Mr Palmer was at the school in Hall Lane to talk about his work and inspire pupils in their writing.

He is the author of three Puffin fiction series for children: Football Academy, Foul Play and The Squad. He has also written a rugby story, Scrum!

His first novel Foul Play was short-listed for the Blue Peter Book Award.

His school visit included readings from his books and a quiz with a classroom penalty shoot-out using a soft ball and inflatable goal.

Calendar

The activities are designed to engage the children in a positive conversation about reading and writing.

The workshop was rounded off with a question and answer session.

Exams manager Angela Lockett said

a visit by an author was part of the regular school calendar.

"We invite a published writer every year," she said. "The children are always impressed to meet a real-life author and Tom Palmer is very popular in children's fiction."

Mr Palmer, a former librarian and milkman from Leeds, said: "Football is full of crime. I read about it in the newspapers."

"But I also love going into schools. The quiz, with the penalty shoot-out, always goes down well."

Football club to receive award

THE Lord Lieutenant of Staffordshire will present a junior football team with a top award later this month.

Wyrley Juniors FC have been awarded the Queen's Award for Voluntary Service and the crystal and scroll will be presented by Mr Ian Dudson at 7.30pm on Monday, October 21.

South Staffordshire MP Gavin Williamson has been invited to the ceremony at Long Lane, Essington, along with three parish council chairmen, representatives of Staffordshire FA and grant funders, school-teachers and past and present people involved with the club.

A history of the club will be on display, while the club's young players will form a guard of honour.

Flats plan turned down by council

PLANS to build flats on a prominent street corner have been rejected.

An application was lodged for eight flats in place of five properties in Huntington Terrace Road, Cannock.

A petition with 11 signatures and two letters of objection were lodged with Cannock Chase Council's planning control committee.

The petition cited concerns over the impact on neighbouring properties and visual impact.

There were also objections over access and members voted against the scheme despite an officer recommendation for approval.

Councillor Mike Groot said: "I am not in favour of this proposal in its present state."

Branch meeting of wildlife trust

THE next Cannock Group meeting of the Staffordshire Wildlife Trust will feature an illustrated talk on 'Wild Flowers of the Austrian Alps' by Gwen Johnson.

It starts at 7.30pm on Wednesday, October 16 at St Luke's Church Centre, Cannock. Entrance is £1.50 which includes refreshments.

ANDREWS

HOW our times are changing. According to a major toy retailer, this year's must-have is a talking doll based on the Disney cartoon show Sofia The First.

Apparently, this is the story of a seven-year-old girl who has to adapt to life as a princess after her mother marries King Roland.

Time was when little girls dreamt of marrying a handsome prince. Now, if the modern fairytales are anything to go by, they let their single mothers do it for them.

BIRMINGHAM is officially the youngest city in Europe, with under-25s accounting for almost 40 per cent of the population, proudly declares the funky-monkey, too-cool-for-school youth charity Envision.

Or, to put it another way, Brummies don't live very long.

SO that's the end of the party conference season for another year. We now know that the Tories are in favour of 'hard-working families', that Labour thinks it's a good idea to get young people into work, and that the Liberal Democrats... sorry, I lost you there for a moment, didn't I?

One of these days somebody will stand up at one of these conferences and really put their neck on the line, declaring unequivocal support for people who can't be bothered to get up in the morning, and saying they think youth unemployment is a really good idea. But I guess until then, we will just have to resign ourselves to the fact that our politicians can only speak in platitudes.

But the one striking thing about this year's conference season is how short the conferences have become.

As recently as the 1990s, the party conferences ran from Sunday to Friday, then more recently they started knocking off on Thursday. This year they were all done-and-dusted by Wednesday.

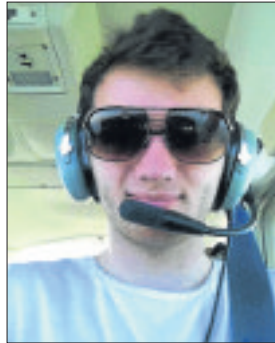

Why is this? Have they run out of things to say? Or, in this age of environmental awareness, have they decided that they had better keep an eye on the amount of hot air they produce?

Of course we shouldn't complain. I doubt if there are that many people around the country who look at their television listings and think, 'you know what, I would really like to hear a bit more from Harriet Harman'.

But wouldn't you think, given that our politicians are all supposed to be big on 'hardworking families', that they could at least stretch it until the end of the week?

Stephen Sutton, aged 18

Stephen enjoys a flying lesson

The teenager has done two skydives

Riding a segway was also on the list

Helping others is now the top of Stephen's wish list

MARION BRENNAN reports

ANOTHER week, another 'wish' crossed off teenager Stephen Sutton's bucket list.

After being diagnosed with incurable cancer, the former A-Level student embarked on a mission to make the world a better place and to have a blast as he does so.

Stephen sat down and wrote a wish list of things he wanted to do. The 46-strong inventory went viral after he published it online seven months ago. Friends and complete strangers have come forward to help him realise his dreams.

A woman in Thailand paid a street artist to paint his portrait from a photograph on his site after seeing number 43 on the list. It arrived through the post.

He has learned to juggle, gone busking in Bolton, surfed the crowd in a rubber dinghy at the Slam Dunk festival in and had a flying lesson.

Awesome

The last item wasn't on his list but flying first-class was. He says: "I'm counting that as first-class travel because it was awesome."

He wanted to play drums in front of a huge crowd. That was ticked off after taking part in the pre-match entertainment before 90,000 football fans – and a 200 million TV audience – at the Champions League Final at Wembley in May.

He has ridden a Segway, appeared as an extra in daytime serial Doctors – 'ironically, I was a patient' – and gone on a lads' holiday to Ibiza.

He is waiting to hear whether his name will appear in the Guinness Book of World Records after organising a marathon drum roll with friends.

And a good time was had by all when he put his culinary skills to the test in his own 'Come Dine With Ste' evening. Among the more obscure items on his list, he found someone with more surgical scars than he has, while some of the activities he enjoyed so much he did them more than once.

Stephen during a prom in Switzerland – another of his list ticked off

He wanted a tattoo – he got two. He has also been to three music festivals – V, Download and Bushwhacked – and performed two skydives.

The 18-year-old, who lives with his mother Jane, stepfather Tony and 21-year-old brother Chris, said: "When I was fixing up the skydive, loads of others said they wanted to do it with me."

I decided to cap the number at 20 because there was too much organisation involved. In the end 55 of us did it, it was crazy, and I loved it so much, I did it again."

Along the way he has met a few famous names. At Wembley to see England play Brazil, he was introduced to Steven Gerrard, Frank Lampard and Theo Walcott and met Phil 'The Power' Taylor at a darts match at the NLA.

helium, and the book, too, has been put on hold.

The first signs of Stephen's illness appeared three years ago. His father Andy has twice beaten bowel cancer and there is a history of the disease in the family but it was still a shock to the then 15-year-old to be diagnosed with 'an old man's disease'.

The cancer quickly spread to his knee and then his pelvis before a growth was discovered in his groin. Last November, as doctors were preparing to amputate his left leg, it was discovered the disease had spread and was incurable.

He found compiling the list had helped in unexpected ways. "It's made me reassess my life and concentrate on what's important."

Still to be ticked off are the long-haul trips – going to carnival in Brazil, visiting a famous waterfall, flying to Australia, going to the 15th-century Inca site at Machu Picchu in Peru.

Original

And he has yet to make a bungee jump in an exotic location or get music comedian Tim Minchin to write a song for him. Stephen has also pledged to raise as much as he can for the Teenage Cancer Trust and has extending his target to £150,000 after surpassing his original goal of £100,000.

The former A-star student, who was on course to become a doctor, gave up his studies at Chase Terrace Technology College to focus on his quirky list of goals. Now he says: "I don't really care about the bucket list anymore."

"It's not so important. I really just want to help others. The important thing is fundraising. I want to raise as much money and reach as many people as possible."

Recently he was given the accolade of Inspirational Young Person of the Year at the House of Commons in the 2013 'Inspire The House' Awards run by the Kids Count charity. He was also the inaugural winner of his old school's Stephen Sutton Award for Inspiring Others which will be awarded annually.

THROUGH THE YEARS

1983...

NEIL Kinnock was announced as the Labour Party's new leader, succeeding Michael Foot. The 41-year-old was the youngest Labour leader since Ramsay MacDonald. Roy Hattersley, who had been a rival for the leadership, was elected as his deputy.

RETIRED research scientist Cyril Knight won a reduction on his rates – by playing bingo. The 68-year-old was challenging the rateable value of his property in Codsall, which was calculated by how much it was expected to fetch in rent. "I didn't know how much reduction to go for, so I drew out a bingo number and came up with the figure of £25, which they agreed," he said.

LARRY Grayson was heading to ITV to present a new game show. He was following in the footsteps of his Generation Game predecessor Bruce Forsyth, who had quit the show to move to ITV.

HOME Secretary Michael Howard announced 27 new measures in one of the toughest crackdowns on crime in modern times. His proposals included ending a suspect's right to silence, creating a national system of genetic fingerprinting for all crimes, and building six new prisons.

GEORGE Cole was hanging up his camel-hair coat after 14 years playing loveable rogue Arthur Daley in the hit series Minder.

D-DAY hero John Howard walked along Pegasus Bridge in Normandy for the last time before it was dismantled so the canal could be widened. Major Howard won the DSO for his part in the assault in which he, along with 180 other soldiers, captured the bridge across the Orne Canal during the Second World War.

POSTAL workers walked out of Wolverhampton's sorting centre in protest against plans to open another mail operation in the city to ease the Christmas workload. Staff feared overtime working hours would be cut. The men returned to work after an hour following talks.

BODY panels for the world-famous black taxis would be made in the Midlands, it was revealed. Wednesfield-based Automotive Service Centre won the contract to make the panels, securing 450 jobs.

RIO Ferdinand was dropped from the England squad after failing to turn up for a drug test. The Football Association decided to drop the Manchester United defender for the weekend's crucial Euro 2004 qualifier against Turkey. Ferdinand, said he had never taken drugs.

Performing on stage is still magic for Daniels

VETERAN magician Paul Daniels entertained fans in Cannock and proved he's lost none of his sparkle after more than 40 years in the business.

Now aged 75, he appeared on stage with wife Debbie McGee and entertained fans with his trademark magic tricks and cheeky humour.

The bubbly star vowed that he would not give up his beloved magic while ever his fans still wanted to see him.

"I will keep going as long as the people ask me," he said.

Repertoire

Taking the spotlight for his 'First Farewell tour' Daniels is still enjoying the chance to showcase his tricks with a touch of comedy.

And he says fans should not read into the name of the tour, likening himself to Status Quo and the Rolling Stones who have been doing similar 'farewells' for years.

Ahead of last Thursday night's show at the Prince of Wales Centre in Church Street, Cannock, where he rolled back the years with his repertoire of magic, he said: "I still like doing it and people keep asking, I am just like a little boy who can't say no."

"I will keep going as long as the people ask me. That is he real thing. It is the variety of it, our office changes everyday, sometimes we are doing big venues, sometimes we are doing little venues and private parties."

"I actually prefer smaller audience participation, intimacy is how I work best. I enjoy my job, it is my hobby."

The funny, cheeky side is clear to see

Veteran magician Paul Daniels in Cannock with wife Debbie McGee

both on and off stage. He is capable of putting on several accents including one for the Midlands. "It is one of the easiest ones, all you have to do is keep your back teeth closed," he says.

He was in Cannock with his biggest fan - wife Debbie McGee.

Handkerchief

She said: "He loves entertaining, he is the sort of person that if he is in a queue buying packet of polos he will make people laugh."

The magician achieved international fame through his television series The Paul Daniels Magic Show which ran on the BBC from 1979 to 1994 after making his TV debut on Opportunity Knocks in 1970.

Part of his Prince of Wales performance was a handkerchief changing colour and a number of card tricks.

There were some more typical acts of sliding metal rods into a box containing his partner McGee. But his most impressive trick was saved until last, when a £20 marked by a member of the audience ended up inside a candle and had to be cut open.

Extra cash warning on visit to estate

MY WIFE and I are National Trust members and two weekends ago we decided to visit Shugborough, as we have done on many occasions. A gentle stroll in the grounds and finish up with tea and cake.

I offered to pay by credit card and was told there would be a £2 charge – but there would be no charge for using a debit card. They said it was now their policy to charge for use of credit card.

I put this new ruling down to Staffordshire County Council which runs the estate on the NT's behalf.

The following day we went to Coughton Court, Warwickshire, again N.T. and went through the same exercise, a gentle stroll followed by tea and cake, but with no charges for using a credit card. So be warned if you consider going to Shugborough. Take some extra cash with you.

Country heading for financial collapse

WE as a country have only one outcome which is financial collapse.

Our national debt stands at five times what our entire economy is worth. Politicians over many decades have been constantly using the crowd-pleasing policies of tax cuts followed by huge increases in borrowing instead of looking after our interests and have acted like teenagers with their first credit card to win votes.

If Britain was a company we would be declared bankrupt. In 2010 our debt was just over £800million. Even with George Osborne's cuts Britain's debts will rocket to almost £1.5trillion by 2015. All our banks are supporting Government Debt Bonds. If these fail, interest rates will have to rise to a level that will destroy Britain's property market through rising mortgage rates and force our country into a depression bigger than ever before, with interest rates higher than the Thatcher years.

We need to live with minimum debt and buy only what we can afford and end this constant desire to own property and sever our connection with the EU which is costing us £170billion per year with membership and taxes. A one-size EU doesn't work as far too many EU countries are bankrupt, all aid should be linked to trade. A change in law is needed so all companies who trade in Britain pay tax in Britain so no company can avoid tax and a prices and incomes commission is needed to regulate prices to control our economy. If we do not control our own debt we will all drown in our country's collapse.

Town's oldest house was a farm building

RE: The article of September 13 concerning the oldest house in Hednesford. I believe this was West Cannock Farm, Brimley Heath, formerly Humphrey Morton's house.

Mentioned in the mid 1500s about beating the bounds between Lichfield and Cannock, it records leaving Hazel Slade and following Bentley Brook to the Rugeley Road then passing the front door of Humphrey Morton's house to the Cank Thorn near First Lodge.

When my grandmother died in 1942 our family moved into West Cannock Farm. I helped with the demolition of the stables and granary when the farmhouse was extended in the early 50s. The woodwork was Elizabethan with wooden dowels to hold them together with no foundations just sandstone blocks placed on the soil and then house bricks on top.

The farm house which should have been listed was demolished to make way for housing in the late 1970s.

Most dangerous service

I SUPPORTED the fire services when they went on strike. Out of the three emergency services theirs is the most dangerous one of all. Why shouldn't they leave at 60 years not at 65 years and also get a good pension?

I would like to see Aidan Burley and other MPs spend a day as an observer at their local fire station. After all, MPs get way more money than they do.

Let's act in the war on drugs

NEWS from the asylum: Durham Chief Constable Mike Barton believes we should de-criminalise Class A drugs as this will rob criminal gangs of their finance.

A bit like ending prohibition in the States completely ended their Mafia problem! The truth is they wouldn't go away, they'd move on to something else that we haven't thought of.

Further, the Chief Constable believes these drugs should be available on the NHS. There are currently cancer drugs which are unavailable on the NHS due to their cost.

I wonder where he thinks the money and the drugs would come from? Will we grow them ourselves or buy them off the drugs cartels, perhaps for a bulk discount?

The only way to deal with this problem is to sack people like this and replace them with people with the guts to realise we are fighting a war against drugs and to act accordingly.

All that's missing is school and shops

RE: the articles regarding the project of building houses in Landwood Lane Great Wyrley by KGL Estates.

Mrs Preece, of Landwood Lane, has only lived in the village for three months, Mr Lees and his family have lived here for more than 80 years and have done a lot of good, with his brother Percy doing charity work and playing the piano according for various charities and the church. His sister Stella also has done charity work and supported the church.

Ken Lees himself has donated a much-needed new cemetery for the communities of Great Wyrley and Cheslyn Hay. On the proposed development he is also donating much-needed allotments for the area. Many of the protesters are living in the houses that Mr Lees built in the first place.

This can only be good for the community and I hope it goes ahead. The only thing missing is a school and shops.

Brilliant concert at a wonderful venue

I WAS lucky enough to be present on September 27 at the Aquarius for a brilliant concert at a wonderful venue.

Songbirds in Harmony were excellent and were ably supported by the Bridgtown Concert Show Band and the DJ Dance Academy. It was a really enjoyable evening and certainly shows that there is no shortage of talent in our area. Thank you to all involved and I am looking forward to the next concert.

Player thanks life-saving friends after heart attack

A FATHER-of-two has his friends to thank for saving his life – after he suffered a heart attack while playing football.

Dave Betteridge, aged 46, of Armitage Road, Rugeley, collapsed just moments after scoring an equalising goal for his six-a-side team Trotters.

Friends and team-mates Glyn Betts and Matt Inns rushed to his aid and administered first aid until paramedics arrived.

The trained first aiders took it in turns doing mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and compressions during a 10 minute period.

Mr Betteridge, who works at Rugeley Power Station, was then taken to Walsall Manor Hospital where he has remained for care while awaiting a triple by-pass operation.

Dropped

It happened on September 12 as he played on the astroturf at the Erasmus Darwin Academy in Chasetown. After scoring, Mr Betteridge slowly dropped to the floor. Team mates, including son Jacob, initially thought it was a joke.

Wolves fan Mr Betteridge has hailed his pals for saving his life.

"I personally can't remember much about the event," he said. "Apparently I got the ball and scored, which was a bit of a shock itself, and that was when I collapsed. The next thing I remember is waking up here at Walsall Manor."

"They saved my life, there is no doubt about that. Without those two I wouldn't be here now. I owe them a massive debt of gratitude."

Frank tale of a Desert Rat is brought to book

Alex Franks launches his book at Cannock Library watched by Ron Mattison

Alex as a young soldier

AN old soldier who faced a number of near death experiences in the war but lived to tell the tale has had his memoirs published.

Second World War veteran Alex Franks' gripping tales of wartime horror have been immortalised in print.

Now aged 93, Mr Franks signed copies of his self-penned novel Non-combatant, at Cannock Library, in Manor Avenue.

Mr Franks was an ambulance driver with the legendary 7th Armoured Division, The Desert Rats.

Despite never firing a gun during his time in North Africa, he was captured by enemy forces and thrown into a concentration camp. Great-grandfather of six Mr Franks, of Wheaton Aston, lived to tell the tale and arrived back home in May 1945.

He said: "When I got back from the war people told me just to forget about it but I couldn't. I used to have nightmares about the horrors."

It wasn't until the late 1980s that he finally put pen to paper and started writing his memoirs.

Whisky

It features the story of his capture by the Italians at El Agheila in Libya and being aboard the Italian ship Ariosto SS which was bombed by the British and sank in February 1942.

He said: "Around 300 of us were kept below deck without food or water."

"The ship was torpedoed by the British. I went looking for some food in the crews' quarters. I found a life jacket and some Scotch whisky which I drank with some other men. When the ship was going down I knew I had to jump in the water.

"The water was freezing. I managed to swim to a nearby Italian ship and was pulled aboard."

Mr Franks had to wait two decades until his book was published after Midland advertising guru Trevor Beattie decided to fund its release.

Widower Mr Franks, whose wife Irene died in 2009, signed copies of the book, which is selling for £20. All proceeds from sales of the book will go to The Red Cross.

He added: "I managed to sell six copies at the weekend. I printed 300 and I'm down to my last 20 or so now."

NEWSArrests after made after police in drugs swoop

DRUGS officers swooped on homes during early-morning police raids in Heath Hayes. Cannabis believed to be worth hundreds of pounds was seized, and three people were arrested. Officers searched homes in Hobart Road and Melbourne Road at 8am last Thursday.

A 42-year-old man from Hobart Road was arrested and a 27-year-old man and a 23-year-old woman from Melbourne Road were arrested, all on suspicion of being concerned in the supply of cannabis.

The two men have been released on bail until a date in December pending further inquiries. The woman was released without charge.

Bandmates reunite for tribute show to drummer

FORMER Oasis frontman Liam Gallagher will play with an old bandmate for the first time in 13 years at a one-off charity concert.

It has been organised by the Charlatans in memory of their drummer Jon Brookes, from Burntwood, who died after battling a brain tumour, aged 44.

The gig at the Royal Albert Hall on October 18 is being held as a tribute to the popular musician and well-known Baggies fan. It will raise money for The Brain Tumour Charity.

As well as a headline set by The Charlatans, the show will feature Liam Gallagher performing with members of Beady Eye and guitarist Paul 'Bonehead' Arthurs, an original member of Oasis who left in 2000.

Arthurs has not played with either Gallagher brother since the split. Manic Street Preachers singer James Dean Bradfield will also perform solo, while the Chemical Brothers will DJ in between.

MP in call over risk of diabetesBenefit

A statement released by the band ahead of the show said: "Following the loss of our much-missed friend and drummer, Jon Brookes we, together with some friends, are putting on a show at the Royal Albert Hall."

"The show will benefit The Brain Tumour Charity, which Jon was involved with during his illness."

More than 200 mourners attended the father-of-three's funeral at Christ Church in Burntwood.

Guests included Mr Brookes' friend and West Bromwich Albion defender Jonas Olsson.

Father-of-three Brookes was a founding member of the iconic Britpop band. Fronted by Tim Burgess, the band was formed in Walsall in 1989.

Car wash refused

An application for a hand car wash on the site of the Jubilee pub in Pye Green Road, Cannock, has been thrown out by the district council's planning control committee.

Funding treat served up for church helpers

A HEDNESFORD church is now better equipped to serve up a treat for the needy. Trinity Pop-In, based within the Methodist Church in Station Road, is run by volunteers who cook and serve 80 lunches every Wednesday and Thursday. Meals are free but users are asked to contribute what they can towards the cost.

The volunteers' task has been made easier thanks to funding from the Tesco Charity Trust. The town council added its own £400 to the charity's £1,000 donation and the money will be spent on professional cooking range and oven.

The Pop-In provides an opportunity for people to meet and socialise and also houses a foodbank.

Police have licence to check on regulations

From left, Julie Turner, environmental enforcement officer for Cannock Chase Council, Councillor Carl Bennett, environment leader and Pc Andrew Frost

POLICE and council officials have joined forces to ensure late-night premises and taxis are compliant with licensing regulations.

The licensing operation has been carried out in Cannock and Rugeley, where officers have targeted late-night premises by scrutinising licensing conditions, reviewing incident records and CCTV, checking licence holders and door staff badges and clamping down on under-age drinking, drunkenness and drugs.

Smoking

The operation, part of the wider Operation Safer Nights Initiative, highlighted the lack of fire safety risk assessments and record-keeping at licensed premises. In addition, a number of taxi drivers were found to be smoking within their vehicles and were issued with Fixed Penalty Notices.

Councillor Carl Bennett, environment portfolio holder, said: "We work closely with landlords and taxi drivers to ensure they are fully compliant to licensing regulations. These operations are part of a wider initiative to ensure night time revellers can enjoy a safe night out within their local area."

Chief Inspector, Carl Ratcliffe, Cannock Chase Local Policing Team said: "We work closely with other agencies to ensure that the licensing laws are adhered to."

New store granted an extension to its hours

A SUPERMARKET that opened just over a month ago has been allowed to extend its operating hours – despite objections from neighbours.

The Tesco Express store in Stafford Road, Cannock opened at the end of August.

by Laura Blyth

Its hours were 9am-10pm but bosses applied to open two hours earlier and until 11pm in the evenings.

Planning chiefs at Cannock Chase Council gave the application the go-ahead at a committee meeting last week.

Noise

It comes after neighbours raised concerns about increased noise in the mornings and late at night.

One resident living opposite the store, who wrote to the council, said: "My concern at the change would be the amount of noise this would create early and late at night."

"Whether due to lorries delivering or customers on the car park with their cars still running and shouting and talking so late at night. Plans to the council submitted by the agent GL Hearn stated: "The variation to the planning permission is necessary for the intended end user, Tesco Express, to operate from the unit in order to meet the aspirational requirements of the customers who expect a store of this size to operate during convenient times."

"The proposed opening hours are a standard feature of convenience stores of this size."

Thousands of shoppers flocked to the grand opening of the Tesco Express which created 15 jobs.

The chain has also opened two other stores recently, an new 80,000sq ft building in Hednesford which is the cornerstone of the town's £50 million transformation and 40,000sq ft shop in Rugeley.

Skills training high on political agenda

County councillors Ben Adams and Susan Woodward at the Lichfield and Burntwood Vocational Centre

COUNTY councillors Sue Woodward and Ben Adams dropped in on a Burntwood learning centre and agreed that, despite their political differences, they both have skills training high on their agenda.

The councillors visited the Lichfield and Burntwood Vocational Centre in Burntwood. The £2.5 million facility opened in 2011 and offers vocational skills training and education to 14-to-19-year-olds. Because of changes in funding arrangements, it needs to increase its activity to thrive.

Councillor Woodward, Labour's Shadow Cabinet member for Learning & Skills, said: "It's a fantastic facility and I was concerned to hear about the pressures it is under. I asked Ben to visit the centre with me as we both want to see a thriving skills training sector."

The councillors met the Partnership Board for the Skills Centre about their concerns and all parties will hold a further meeting in November.

Bridges will be rebuilt in rail upgrade

TWENTY-four railway bridges will either be rebuilt or modified as part of the electrification of the Chase Line.

Network Rail is currently carrying out feasibility studies of the structures along 15 miles of the Walsall to Rugeley track.

by Laura Blyth

The overall £30 million electrification scheme is due to be completed by 2017. It will see the installation of 15 miles of overhead cables. Diesel trains will also be replaced by electric ones.

Option

Network Rail project manager Mokhtar Mohammed said: "We are carrying out feasibility studies across the whole route. There are 24 junctions with bridges we are looking at."

"We will go with the most cost-effective option. We should know more within a month."

Mr Mohammed said the road bridges would either be rebuilt or the track sunk into the ground so power lines could run through the bridges.

Around £1.1m is currently being invested in the Station Road bridge, Hednesford, and is scheduled to be carried out between January and April with a road closure in force. A further £800,000 is due to be spent on Walkers Rise, in Hednesford, during the same period. Diversions will be in place for drivers while work is carried out.

Events to showcase the plans have been held, and at a consultation event at Cannock Civic centre in Beecroft Road, the overall project was backed by Western Springs councillor Mick Grocott, from Rugeley.

He said: "If it means more efficiency and shorter journey I am in support. It will encourage people to use the trains."

"People who use the trains are welcoming it."

Rail bosses have promised long-term benefits such as boosting capacity, reducing carbon emissions and cutting the cost of running the railway. They hope it will also encourage more passengers onto trains.

Work to fix roof at church

WORK costing £2,000 to fix a leaking roof at a Cannock church has taken place. The Rev Edward Sakwe, of Chadsmoor Methodist Church, said: "We've had a leakage in the roof so these works were necessary. It is costing about £2,000." The church, in Cannock Road, Chadsmoor, celebrated its centenary year in 2011. Each November parishioners celebrate the church's birthday with a weekend of activities. There will be a number of special services and fundraising events there on November 2 and 3.

Four-and-a-half-year term for prolific burglar

Canvas for charity campaign

Alisha Kirkham, from Cannock, whose paintings will be on show at Cannock Library to raise money for Birmingham Children's Hospital

AN ARTIST is displaying and selling her work from Cannock Library to help raise funds for Birmingham Children's Hospital.

Alisha Kirkham is showing around 20 of her paintings and sculptures at the Manor Avenue venue for a month.

The mental health recovery worker suffered severe whiplash in a car accident around 18 months ago and was forced to take around a year off work. Art became a hobby for the mother-of-two while she recovered, and she is now using her talents to raise money for the hospital which helped her relatives.

The 30-year-old, of Cannock, said: "My niece, Annie, was helped by Birmingham Children's Hospital because she wasn't growing properly, and my second cousin, Sena, had heart surgery there after he had a heart attack.

"After my accident, I started doing a bit of art as a kind of therapy. I do contemporary abstract art and I like working with wire to do sculptures.

"One of the paintings is a sunset on Cannock Chase, with the silhouette of a tree, and another is a sunset at V Festival where all the tents are silhouetted.

"I just tend to go with the flow and my art reflects how I'm feeling at the time. I'll be at the library every Saturday as well giving out leaflets about the hospital."

Work is on sale for between £10 and £50, with half the proceeds going to Birmingham Children's Hospital.

A BUNGLING burglar with more than 50 previous convictions was snared by police after leaving DNA evidence while committing his two latest crimes, a court heard.

Kevin Simcox has been jailed for four-and-a-half years. He smashed a window at a bungalow in Chestnut Close, Cannock, but the noise woke the 78-year-old householder, Stafford Crown Court heard.

She went into the living room to confront the intruder and Simcox fled through the broken window as soon as he saw her. Mr Robert Edwards, prosecuting, said police were quickly on the scene with a tracker dog, which followed a scent to a bike left nearby.

Pursuit

A watch was kept on the bike until the suspect returned and rode off with the dog in pursuit. Although Simcox got away from the dog, a lamp fell off his bike and the defendant's DNA was found on it, the court heard.

Ten days later, Simcox broke into a house in Stafford Lane, Hednesford, disturbing a man and his son. Simcox stole some coins, toiletries and a remote control, but dropped them in the back garden as he fled.

Simcox, aged 39, of Cannock Road, Chads Moor, admitted two charges of burglary. The court heard he had 24 previous convictions for house burglary and had been jailed for four years in 2007.

Mr Edwards said blood stains on a broken conservatory window at the Stafford Lane premises yielded Simcox's DNA.

The defendant had a record of 51 previous convictions, including 24 house burglaries, and was being sentenced as a 'third strike' burglar for the second time.

Boost for local business

A NEW group aimed at developing work and contacts for Cannock businesses was set to be launched this week by a bestselling straight-talking entrepreneur. The meeting of 4N was held at The Turf Lodge, Norton Canes, last night (Wednesday) led by founder Brad Burton.

Brave couple stunned by cancer news tie the knot

Andre and Maria Timberlake-Evans who brought their wedding forward after receiving the devastating news

A BRAVE couple brought their wedding day forward after hearing that their lives together would be cut short.

Andre and Marie Timberlake-Evans' wedding was ideal and arranged in only two weeks.

Just over a fortnight earlier, the couple had received the devastating news that Andre had incurable cancer. The pair brought their big day forward after the couple were left stunned by the news that Andre had 14 to 18 months left to live.

The newly-weds say they are 'overwhelmed' by the kindness of family, friends and even strangers who rallied to create their perfect day.

Andre, aged 39, who trains with the Shin Gi Tai Aiki Jiu Jitsu club in Rugeley, said: "We were so touched by the way everyone came together."

He was forced to sell his business of 15 years, Horizon Window Cleaning, when he became ill.

"It's overwhelming to see people's humanity. It really touched us," he added.

And the inspirational couple are determined not to worry about what the future holds and to enjoy the time they have together with their 12-year-old son Max, a pupil at Wrockwardine Wood Arts Academy School.

"This situation puts things into perspective," said Andre, a karate black belt of Oakengates, Telford.

Magical

The couple married last Friday at the Hadley Park Hotel in Telford.

"We had two and a half weeks to arrange the wedding of a lifetime and it was amazing," said Andre.

"Everyone in that room we loved and it was absolutely magical."

Andre noticed something was wrong back in June when he began to struggle to focus on what people were saying, muddled up his words, was sleeping a lot and found co-ordination difficult.

A scan at A&E at the Princess Royal Hospital found a mass on his brain.

In August, Andre had an operation to remove the tumour and the couple heaved a sigh of relief.

"They said it was benign," said Andre. "We had 10 days where we thought everything was fine, the coast is clear and I felt so good."

But at their follow-up appointment the couple, of Cavendish Close, Oakengates, received devastating news.

"The consultant said you've got grade four glioblastoma. She said I had 14 to 18 months or three months without treatment."

Andre, due to start chemotherapy and radiotherapy, wanted to marry 31-year-old Maria, a retail assistant at Asda Living in Wrekin Retail Park, Wellington, before he suffered the side-effects of treatment.

Max took on the role of usher and ring-bearer, Maria's ivory dress was something borrowed, from close friend Emma Bouyac, Blue Florist in Shifnal provided the flowers and old bandmate of Andre's, Daniel Jones, performed with his group The Intersellers.

Scouts and Guides hut is 25 years old

Gavin Williamson MP, Karen Andrew, Great Wyrley District Guide Commissioner, Mary Owen, 1st Great Wyrley Group Scout Leader and Eric Pritchard, Great Wyrley Scout and Guide Centre life president

AROUND 250 people turned out to celebrate the 25th anniversary of Great Wyrley Scouts and Guides headquarters.

Guests, including South Staffordshire MP Gavin Williamson, enjoyed a barbecue and camp fire for the celebration at the end of last month.

Others in attendance included chairman of the management committee Alan Kelsey, chairman of the Scout group Andy Evans, lifelong member of the group and life president Eric Pritchard and Scouts and Guides leaders Mary Owen and Karen Andrew.

Many past leaders of both organisations were also welcomed, along with some of those who helped with the building of the Walsall Road HQ, namely ex-scout David Guthrie, Eino Luppe, Bob Elwell and Roger Patterson.

Mr Kelsey said: "There was good support from the children in the organisations along with their parents and their leaders."

"Former Great Wyrley parish council chairman Mike Collins who was instrumental in helping us to get the land to build the centre and his wife Brenda also attended."

The cooking team included committee member Dave Caddick, leader Gordon Owen and others, while the camp fire was led by John Tregust.

Fewer young people claim jobseeker's, show figures

THE number of young people claiming jobseeker's allowance across Cannock has fallen to the lowest levels since 2011, according to latest figures released last week.

In July of that year the number of 18-to-24-year-olds claiming benefits was 785. In August this year 515 young people were claiming JSA – a drop of 270.

The worst month in that period was in February 2012 when 875 young people were claiming.

Cannock Chase District Council leader George Adamson said increased apprenticeship schemes and the opening of two supermarkets in the area were behind the drop.

Helped

He said: "I think the opening of two Tesco supermarkets in Rugeley and Hednesford has really helped drive down unemployment figures. Apprenticeship schemes are also very important."

by Laura Blyth

"One of the problems in this country is a skills shortage."

"Setting up apprenticeship schemes are the best way to do that."

"At the council we are dedicated to providing these opportunities."

Tesco in Rugeley created 300 new jobs last month, while the store in Hednesford also created 300 posts when it opened at the end of last year.

Santa in church grotto

A BURNWOOD church hosts a Country & Western Christmas fair next month. It takes place from noon to 3pm at St John's Community Church, High Street, Chase Terrace on Saturday, November 23. Attractions will include facepainting, gifts and stalls, entertainment, Father Christmas in his grotto and the chance to buy lunch at the cafe.

Butcher is guest speaker Shopping trip among forthcoming days out

SHARESHILL WI

ON a chilly evening president Margaret Beddard, in welcoming members and four visitors, said it had seemed a long time since the last meeting in July in the middle of a heatwave!

She thanked John Parton for organising the walk and Ann Shutt for organising the meal at The Terrace for another successful Summer Saunter. It was lovely to see Anna Jones and Joan Jones, both victims of nasty falls – we wish them both a speedy recovery.

The Diamond Jubilee fund has now reached half its target.

The Eating Out Club had a nice lunch at The Dog and Partridge, Calf Heath. The Darts Club has two matches arranged and Craft Club continues to meet at Hather-ton parish rooms.

Suggestions were requested for names of local charities to which donations could be made instead of sending Christmas cards.

Speaker, award-winning Codsall butcher Alan Bennett, entertained the ladies with the story of his life in the butchery industry.

The group is having a Halloween Party for its meeting on October 17. Members are asked to dress up appropriately and there will be a prize for the best costume.

Ladies are asked to bring a pumpkin lantern for table decoration. The sales table will be for miscellaneous goods and books.

Chairman Pat Elwell, centre, with special guests Peter and Annette Martin

SEPTEMBER'S monthly September luncheon meeting was held at The Barns Restaurant. Chairman Pat Elwell welcomed everyone and gave a special welcome to guests Peter and Annette Martin.

Clare Breeze said Grace before the ladies enjoyed their lunch. After the Loyal Toast, Mr Martin entertained the ladies with video films of their visit to India and Nepal.

Vice chairman Eileen Cryer gave the vote of thanks. The pictures and sounds of the filming were amazing. A short meeting followed in which social secretary Elizabeth Stephenson read out the forthcoming monthly trips.

On October 17 it is planned to return to The Carvery at Far Forest, near Bewdley. There is a shopping trip to Touchwood, Solihull on November 7 and Christmas Decorations at Attingham Park on December 19.

Guild celebrates 10 years

LAPLEY Trefoil Guild was 10 years old in September and members celebrated with wine and birthday cake.

The cake was made by the chairman's daughter-in-law and was decorated to depict some of the activities members have taken part in over the years. While members enjoyed a buffet, photographs of activities from the last 10 years were passed around. This was accompanied by many interesting and amusing stories. The Trefoil Guild is linked to Girlguiding and has Guilds nationwide welcoming anyone over the age of 18. Each Guild is run independently and has its own programme of events. The October meeting will be the AGM.

Peter was my world, says Wolves widow

DEVOTED wife Shirley Broadbent reflected on the loss of husband Peter and said: "I have lost my world".

One of Wolves' greatest players, Peter Broadbent died last week after a long battle with Alzheimer's Disease at the age of 80.

He passed away peacefully at Beech House nursing home, Himley Mill. A funeral service was due to take place yesterday at St Peter's Collegiate Church, Wolverhampton. Rev David Wright, who is also Wolves chaplain, was due to conduct the service.

"It's just so sad," said Shirley, aged 78. "It's an awful illness. He was a brilliant footballer but he was such a wonderfully lovely husband who I loved so much. He's been a wonderful man who I admired. I shall miss him so much. I have lost my world."

Dazzling

"But I will not let it get me down too much because he wouldn't have wanted me to get down too much. I've also got my children and grandchildren to think about but consider myself so lucky, to have them because they're so lovely."

A dazzling inside forward Mr Broadbent was recognised as the most skilful player in Wolves' greatest team, Stan Cullis's side of the 1950s which won three League titles and the FA Cup.

Shirley freely admits she was a welcome convert to the footballer's lifestyle.

It was an existence that although very modest by today's multi-millionaires, was still more lavish than the average working man in the 1950s and 60s.

"We loved a good time," she said. "Stan Cullis was strict but he relaxed a bit as he got older and we always loved to go out."

For the last decade and a half, Shirley has watched her husband deteriorate before her eyes into someone who has long been unable to recognise her or talk to her but everyday she sat and talked to him

"I don't know whether he knew

Peter Broadbent in playing heyday

what I was saying but I hoped he did."

Shirley paid tribute to the staff at Beech House who cared for her husband for the last eight years.

Mr Broadbent became the third former Wolves player to pass away in recent weeks after the deaths of 'Waggy' (Dave Wagstaffe) and Barry Stobart.

In saddle for charity

Stuart Hunt of Cannock saddled up for the fundraiser
A CANNOCK cyclist braved the elements as he rode through the night to raise money for the British Heart Foundation.

Stuart Hunt, aged 28, lost both his grandfathers to heart attacks so decided to take part in the Manchester to Blackpool Night Ride in their memory.

The 52-mile nocturnal event started from the Trafford Centre and ended under the lights of Blackpool illuminations. It hopes to raise £150,000 towards the BHP's Broken Hearts Appeal.

Stuart, who raised £340, said: "The atmosphere was brilliant and I am proud to have been part of this amazing challenge. It was fantastic to have everyone there cheering me on to the finish, knowing that my sponsorship money will help the BHP to raise much-needed funds for the research needed to fight heart disease."

MP dishes out awards

TOP performing prefects have been handed awards by their member of parliament. South Staffordshire MP Gavin Williamson joined youngsters at Glenhorne Community Primary in Cheslyn Hay for the presentation ceremony. He spoke to them about the importance of leadership skills.

Plea made as woman is missing from home

POLICE have made a desperate appeal to trace a missing Burntwood woman.

Kayli Hill, aged 26, was reported missing from her home in Eastgate Street, Chase Terrace, on Tuesday, October 1.

She had left home at approximately 11pm on Friday, September 27 in a white vehicle. She was last seen at Dudley bus station at approximately 7.15am the following day, boarding a National Express bus which terminates at Bradford Place in Walsall.

Friends

Kayli is described as white, 5ft 8in tall with a stocky build. She has shoulder-length mousey brown hair and blue eyes.

She was last seen wearing a knee-length cerise pink dress with thin halterneck straps and black ankle boots. She was carrying a black handbag and her hair was down and loose. Kayli often visits friends in the Walsall and Dudley areas.

Officers from Staffordshire Police are working closely with their colleagues in the West Midlands to find the missing woman.

A Staffordshire Police spokesman said: "We consider Kayli to be vulnerable and we are concerned for her welfare."

"Extensive searches in Staffordshire and the West Midlands are under way to locate her and we would ask that anyone who has seen her, or had any contact, to get in touch."

Anyone with information is asked to contact Staffordshire Police on 101 quoting incident number 761 of October 1.

COMPETITION

Win camera to see life through a lens

This Pentax Optio WG-2 camera is on offer in the photography competition run by Specsavers opticians

CAMERAS at the ready! Keen photographers can see life through a lens by winning a Pentax Optio WG-2 camera in a spectacular competition launched by Specsavers.

The Chronicle has teamed up with the Cannock and Rugeley stores to offer the prize, along with a pair of designer sunglasses worth £125 each, for two runners-up.

It is the first photography competition to be run by the opticians and is open to all. The brief is simple but designed to stretch entrants' creativity. Contestants are asked to capture the essence of either Cannock, Rugeley or the surrounding area – whether it's sun shining on a local landmark or capturing the local hustle and bustle – it's as simple as that. The closing date for entries is Thursday, November 7.

Shortlisted entries will then appear in The Chronicle ahead of a final decision on the Cannock and Rugeley Specsavers Photographer of the Year 2013 being made by the panel of judges, including store directors Minal Naik and Martin Shaw.

Talent

Minal Naik, store director at Specsavers in Rugeley said: "We want to give more local photographers the chance to showcase their talent. The photos should show how people see Rugeley or Cannock and what it means to them."

Selected pictures will appear in the two stores and the shortlisted finalists featured in The Chronicle.

For the chance to be Cannock and Rugeley Specsavers Photographer of the Year, email your digital photo to specsavers@targetgroup.co.uk entitled 'photo competition'.

All email entries must include a name, age, address, phone number and details of where the photo was taken.

Competition Rules and Conditions

1. Standard Cannock and Rugeley Chronicle terms and conditions apply. No cash alternative.
2. The entrant must be the sole author and owner of the copyright of all images entered.
3. Entries are limited to two per person.
4. Only digital images will be accepted.
5. You may use digital manipulation to optimise an image but you are not permitted to add or remove key elements of the composition.
6. Images must be no bigger 5MB and no smaller than 1MB.
7. Entries cannot be returned.
8. Finalists must be willing to take part in PR/publicity.

MEMORY LANE

Railway engineer George Stephenson

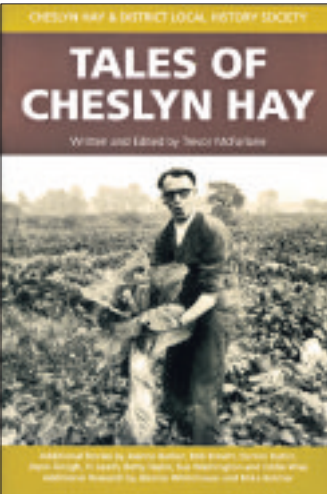

Great singer Kathleen Ferrier CBE

Raymond Everard Hawkins and his wife, Danish Countess Elsa Maria Castenekoild

The Duke of Gloucester visits in 1939

New history tome Tales of Cheslyn Hay

New publication reveals the many secrets of historic village

CHESLYN Hay is a village steeped in history, but there are still many things about the area that locals – or even Chronicle readers would not know.

For example, were you aware that author and TV producer Tony Read was one of Cheslyn Hay's most famous sons? He was born in cottages in The Lot, now known as Park Street and was responsible for small screen successes including The Trouble Shooters, The Lotus Eaters and even Doctor Who and Heartbeat.

He is best known, however, for his political and historical works such as Kristallnacht, which won the Wingate Literary prize of 1989.

But, as the old cottages are no longer standing, there is no place for a blue plaque.

This, and other fascinating facts can be found in the latest work published by Cheslyn Hay & Local History Society: Tales of Cheslyn Hay is the group's ninth publication and was launched last month at an annual exhibition.

Appeal

Since the success of Bygone Days of Cheslyn Hay back in 2005, members of the society have helped to produce a book each year.

Editor and group chairman Trevor McFarlane said: "What we have always tried to achieve is to ensure that every one of our books has general appeal."

"So, like previous editions, Tales of Cheslyn

Hay covers humorous stories as well as serious ones, some based purely on nostalgia while some reflect the hardship of life as it was."

One chapter is entitled 'Ten Things You May Not Have Known About Cheslyn Hay'. It reveals that a road on the Landywood estate was named Windsor Avenue after the Duke that cut the first sod there... except it was the Duke of Gloucester.

Another visit recalled is that of the engineer George Stephenson, famed for his steam engine The Rocket, who discussed with Joseph Hawkins about the prospect of mining coal at Middle Hill.

Performances by the great singer Kathleen Ferrier CBE on stage at the Salem Church are also remembered. Other famous links include the actress Vivien Leigh. When Osmond Hawkins, a member of the prominent village family, married London heiress Marie Holman in 1915, her brother was tied to the Gown With The Wind star.

A distinguished wedding that gets a mention is that of the Countess Elsa Maria Castenekoild of Denmark who tied the knot with the widowed Raymond Everard Hawkins in 1955.

Tales of Cheslyn Hay is priced at £5, available from Mr McFarlane on 01922 414772.

Other chapters in the latest book centre on life at Glenhorne House, the life and mystery of Mary Ewing Allan, the Sarah Barker story, stories from the class of 1902 and the last coffin maker in Cheslyn Hay.

Delight as mystery of old school photograph solved

Pinfold Lane School in 1939. Kath Collins, nee Preece is standing in the centre as the pupils perform a school play

THE MYSTERY of a photograph lost in the post has been solved – to the delight of its sender and intended recipient.

Now, following the appeal in The Chronicle, the riddle has been solved. It had been sent from Filey, north Yorkshire, by 85-year-old Kathleen Collins to Barry Cartwright, of Tame Road, Cannock.

Friends

Since moving to the coastal town several years ago, she has kept in touch with old friends, neighbours and fellow churchgoers from the Bethel Church, in Union Street.

Mr Cartwright is property steward at the church, while Mrs Collins, nee Preece, was a member of the congregation and also helped to run the church's Saturday Club. Mr Cartwright said: "Since she moved we have always kept in touch and she mentioned this picture she had from her school days."

"Once she had posted it, she then called to see if I'd received it, but all that had been delivered was the envelope it had been sent in. We're both glad it's been sorted."

Mrs Collins appears in the centre of the picture as an 11-year-old during the last year at school during a play. She said she was happy the matter had been resolved.

"It was a bit of a worry when it got lost, but I'm happy now," she said.

CLAY pigeon shooting enthusiasts hit their fundraising target at a charity shoot organised by a Stafford legal firm.

The event, held at the Oakedge shooting ground, near Wolsley Bridge, was organised in aid of the Stafford Mayor's charity appeal and raised a total of £5,000.

Stafford Mayor Councillor Angela Loughran was among the spectators while her consort and husband John tried his hand at the pastime.

Businesses from around Staffordshire took part and the event was won by Stafford firm TC Interiors, who took home the ORJ Shooting Stars trophy.

Patrick Tedstone, a partner at organisers ORJ, said: "Everyone at the event seemed to have a great time."

Special

"The turnout was excellent and raising £5,000 for the Mayor's charity appeal made the occasion very special."

This year, the Mayor's charity appeal is raising funds for Stafford and District Bereavement and Loss Support Service, Homestart Stafford and Staffordshire Women's Aid.

Businesses created 14 teams of four to compete in the event. They included local estate agents Butters John Bee and James du Pavey, Santander and Lloyds banks, Perkins Engines, Optima Warehouse Solutions, Geze, Moore Stephens, BDO and Townsend & Renaudon, as well as ORJ's own team, who finished half way down the list of contenders.

Mr Tedstone added: "This was the first clay pigeon shoot that ORJ had organised and we are really pleased that it went so well."

"The teams enjoyed the opportunity to socialise as well as the sport itself. We are now planning to make it an annual event."

Sainsbury's names new manager of town store

A BURNTWOOD man has been named as the new store manager at Sainsbury's in Cannock. Paul Davis brings with him a wealth of experience and knowledge to add to the Sainsbury's team.

Paul began working for Sainsbury's around 29 years ago in his home town, Walsall after two years with A. F. Blakemore Ltd.

He began as a general assistant with Sainsbury's in 1984, before commencing a management scheme with the company, leading to a deputy store manager status in 1991. He then became a store manager in 2001 at the Walsall town centre store.

In 2003 he joined Morrisons as a general store manager, but returned to Sainsbury's in 2004 and since then he has enjoyed managing stores at Reedswood in Walsall, Stafford and now Cannock.

He said: "I am delighted to be working in Cannock."

Fun run raises more than £2k

MORE than £2,000 was raised at a fun run in aid of the Teenage Cancer Trust.

The event was organised by Forward Action Burntwood and 18-year-old Stephen Sutton.

Parents and children took part in the 5k run at Chasewater Country Park and raised a total of £2,575.

Failing school could become an academy to improve standards

A FAILING school in Burntwood will be turned into an academy under new plans.

Springfield Primary, in Mossbank Avenue, was rated inadequate by Ofsted in its latest inspection but governors hope that becoming an academy will improve standards.

The move comes following meetings with Staffordshire County Council to determine the school's future after Ofsted undertook an unscheduled inspection and placed the school into special measures.

The council had already identified the school as a concern and was providing support to raise standards in teaching and learning when the inspection took place.

Skills

In its report, Ofsted agreed with the concerns regarding standards of pupils' achievements, teaching, leadership, management, and governance.

Councillor Ben Adams, cabinet member of learning and skills, said: "We had already written to the previous head and governors asking them to address our concerns about the school's performance, particularly in regards of pupil achievement and assessment."

"Ofsted agreed with the council that a great deal of work was needed regarding the management of the school and to improve standards of education. However, we would like to reassure parents that inspectors did see some outstanding examples of teaching particularly in reception and nursery years and science.

"They also found good relationships between pupils and staff, that pupils are courteous and polite and attending the school contributes to their spiritual, moral and social development."

"We are pleased that an executive head teacher has recently begun to support the school and the governing body are consulting about their proposal for Springhill to become an academy."

"We believe that this will help to strengthen governance and management, which in turn will drive up standards."

"We will also work closely with the executive head teacher and staff to ensure that the necessary support is in place to allow them to make the necessary changes."

Holiday fun to beat the boredom

Burntwood Leisure staff promote the range of half-term activities as the centre in High Street, Chasetown

A SERIES of leisure activities to keep children entertained during the summer holidays have been organised at Burntwood Leisure Centre.

Youngsters aged five to 11 can take part in a number of sessions from October 26 to November 3. Football coaching classes will also be on offer for as little as £5.

Councillor Val Richards, cabinet member for leisure, communications and tourism, said: "For a half term full of fun book onto our sport courses or activity days. We have a wide range of activities on offer for children and young people, including drama, table tennis, cycling, swimming and much more.

For details or to book a place call the centre, in High Street, Chasetown, 01543 308810.

Officers are elected at meeting of church body

NEW officers have been elected to a church group in Burntwood. Pastor Rod Lewis was named chairman of Burntwood Churches United at its AGM on October 3.

Dr Ian Hopkins was named as deputy, with Rev Linda Hood and secretary and Mr Ken Gough as treasurer.

Items dealt with at the meeting, chaired by Rev Chris Parkes, was a final discussion on the new constitution. It was agreed that officers should serve for no more than two years to enable the responsibilities to be spread among the churches.

Future events include the annual Advent service at St Joseph's Church on Thursday November 28 and the Big Burntwood Christmas where BCU are expecting to join in a late evening Christmas opening of shops and stalls at Sankeys Corner on December 14 by providing a hog roast and carols.

Lions organise Christmas fair

BURNTWOOD Lions Club is already organising its Christmas craft fair.

The event, on November 16, will be held from 10am until 4pm.

There will be a number of stalls selling various festive items. For details call 01543 677730.

Build a future with skills at construction academy

Tiling skills are put into practice at the construction academy among others

The LATA name goes mobile – there are three training centres covering the Midlands area

Students learn the importance of timekeeping at work

A practical solution to paid employment

TTP in Kingswinford deliver training covering both the practical and theoretical skills, enabling young people to gain the confidence to work on real properties within the construction sector.

The programme will provide general skills and it is anticipated that some of the young people will go on and specialise in one of the trades they have learned.

The ultimate goal of the construction academies is to encourage young people to want to work in the construction sector and give them the skills to allow them to gain employment either with small builders or property maintenance companies, right through to housing associations and local authorities.

It is expected that some of the young people will become self employed and may even start building firms of the future.

If you are interested in an opportunity to enter the construction sector contact Targeted Training Projects Limited on sales@tplearn.com or call 0800 652 0374.

TARGETED Training Projects (TTP) have developed a unique Access to Apprenticeship Pathway training facility, delivering the maintenance operations apprenticeship framework to train young people aged 16-24 years in various trades.

This will give them a broad range of skills, allowing them to progress into employment with the recognised Apprenticeship Training Academy, LATA in Dudley to complete a full apprenticeship.

This will be facilitated by working with housing associations and local authorities, refurbishing properties in preparation for them to be re-let.

TTP is looking for young people who have the desire to work in the construction sector. The delivery will teach young people skills in carpentry, bricklaying, plastering, plumbing, roofing and tiling. The training will commence in the TTP Training Centres in Birmingham, Kingswinford and Cannock for the initial stages of the course while candidates develop their skills in the different trades and work towards obtaining their CSCS card, allowing them to work on building sites.

When they have developed the skill levels required, they can then apply for employment with LATA and obtain a placement working for housing associations, local authorities and local property maintenance firms. Gary Hawkins, chief executive of LATA, said: "We have been extremely successful with our logistics academies which take young people who are not in education employment or training (NEET) and give them the employability skills to enter the retail and logistics sectors."

We have helped get young people into sustainable employment through the LATA and we are excited to be able to now look at new ways of getting skilled young people into the construction sector."

Still no sign of retiring at the age of 71

Andy Irvine, Newhampton Arts Centre, Wolverhampton FOLK and Irish music legend Andy Irvine came to Wolverhampton before his next gig later this month as part of the LAPD tour in Sligo, Ireland, namely Liam O'Flynn (Andy Irvine, Paddy Glackin and Donal Lunny, Irvine, now aged 71, shows no signs of retiring – great for those who enjoy his gentle and lyrical style of telling stories through his songs.

From the opening Creggan White Hare, Andy showed why he is a master of his craft when it comes to mandolin, guitar, mandola and harmonica. Anyone not mesmerised by his hand movements would be brought under his spell by the gentle and mellow sound he creates.

One of the highlights of the night was O'Donoghue's, which not surprisingly is a pub in Dublin.

Irvine is at his best when he sings but his gentle and self-effacing humour also comes across.

Fallen Angels, Grand Theatre, Wolverhampton
NOEL Coward's Fallen Angels was considered risqué, even shocking, when first staged in 1925. Now it just seems frightfully passé.

Jenny Seagrove and Sara Crowe played wealthy friends who become rivals when a former lover returns to the scene and they contemplate cheating on their husbands. But their plans go awry as a result of indulging in too much Champagne.

The interminable drunk scene allowed the two leads to indulge in slapstick though they were both funnier when trading insults, examples of Coward's brittle barbed wit spiced with spite.

However, Fallen Angels has lost much of its fizz and it is hard to feel empathy with two bored, rich and self-absorbed matrons.

Ellie Goulding, Civic Hall, Wolverhampton

IT seems artists these days know they've really made it when they collaborate with Calvin Harris. Ellie Goulding has done that, had a first number one, toured with Bruno Mars and even mastered that difficult second album, so is riding on the crest of a wave.

And, from the opening Figure 8, there was only one way this concert was going.

She invited the massed ranks to get up and dance during Anything Could Happen, and they didn't disappoint, while she didn't need the help of any Scottish DJ on I Need Your Love. In a performance that was worth the admission alone, she had the crowd and her backing band readily on hand to play and sing along.

And, while she certainly knows how to deliver a pop tune, an acoustic version of Guns and Horses showed a more folkie edge.

After ending the main set with Lights, Goulding returned with You My Everything before ensuring she didn't go out on a whimper with Burn.

Mel C adds Spice to Mary Magdalene role

Jesus Christ Superstar, NIA, Birmingham

THIS is Jesus Christ Superstar but not as you know it. Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice's rock opera has been brought up to date and the packed NIA at Birmingham just loved it.

Forget the 70s, this has Jesus mixing with dreadlocked anarchists, frightening the life out of Roman bankers and spreading the Gospel via Twitter.

Ben Forster, who won the role as Jesus on ITV's Superstar, proves the public vote can sometimes get things right: he looks great and sings powerfully – especially in his solo Gethsemane.

Former Spice Girl Mel C plays a relaxed Mary Magdalene, while Chris Moyles as King Herod proved there is life beyond Radio 1.

Tim Minchin dominated as Judas Iscariot.

What may initially have seemed a bit of an oddball-collection of casting turned out to be a bit of genius.

Deadline nears in hunt to find young sport star

ENTRIES for Cannock Shopping Centre's search for a young Sports Star close this weekend. Centre bosses are looking to recognise the unsung heroes of the community.

Nominations are sought for anyone that has excelled in their sporting endeavours. Email cannockstars@pmwcom.co.uk to make a nomination, with an explanation of why they deserve to win. The deadline for nominations is Sunday, October 13. Remember to include your name, the name of who you are nominating, their age and contact details.

The winning Young Sports Star will receive an engraved Star Award and a prize from Cannock Shopping Centre.

Firm takes advantage of discount rates offer

A COMPUTER firm has taken advantage of a council's business rates scheme to open up a shop in Cannock town centre.

UK Computer Line, in Market Hall Street, owned by Damian Whittaker, sells laptops, PCs, monitors, vapour kits, liquids and anti-viral software as well as carrying out repairs.

The shop has opened following help from Cannock Chase District Council's Town Centre Business Rates Discount Scheme (TCBRDS). Landlords St Modwen has also put up an initial rent free period.

The TCBRDS was introduced in September 2012 and has seen four new businesses launch and 10 others expand, creating 20 jobs as a result.

Footfall has increased and early indications show the new businesses are trading well.

Councillor Diane Todd, portfolio holder for Town Centre Regeneration said: "A recent survey of our town centres has shown that the number of empty retail units has gone down both in Cannock and Rugeley."

Growth

"This is largely down to the business rates discount scheme."

St Modwen's Mark Watkins said: "We're pleased to welcome UK Computer Line to Market Hall Street. The company is undergoing a period of growth and the move will enable the management team to focus on new business opportunities and expand."

The main aim of the TCBRDS is to bring empty town centre retail units back into use. Up to 100 per cent discount on business rates is available for a maximum period of 12 months.

For more details, businesses can contact the Economic Development Team on 01543 464219 or email ecodev@cannockchasedc.gov.uk

Council surgery

UKIP Councillors for Hawks Green, Heath Hayes and Wimblebury are holding a surgery this Saturday, October 12. Surgeries follow on every second Saturday of the month at Heath Hayes Library, Hednesford Road, from 11am to noon.

Work is under way to transform retail park

WORK has started on the expansion of a struggling retail park - with three major national chains vying to move in. The Linkway Retail Park, off the A5 at Longford island, which is home to McDonald's and DFS, was the first out of town shopping site to be built in Cannock in 1988.

It has been hit by a series of closures, but now one of the vacant units is being rebuilt and extended. The former Focus DIY store is being transformed into one main unit and three smaller ones, while Halfords will become two separate shops.

The old Focus site is being torn down and a new steel structure is now in place. Bosses say three major retailers are in discussions to take over the property and an announcement could be just weeks away.

MUSIC

JT back to experience more

JUSTIN Timberlake will have his second major pop success of the year with the second instalment of his album The 20/20 Experience 2 of 2.

It's more slick and stylish funk with Take Back The Night the classy highlight. In truth, it would have been more satisfying to distill both instalments into one excellent album rather than two good ones.

But with tickets snapped up for this tour even at over £100 each for the most expensive seats, there is no stopping this American singer and actor's rise to megastar status with a pop/R&B style akin to his idol Michael Jackson. JT has added a second date at Birmingham, so he will be performing at the LG Arena on April 11 and 12 next year.

Sisters

Sisters from California, Haim, live up to the considerable buzz surrounding them with chart-topping debut album Days Are Gone, which blends the lush sound of classic Californian soft rock (think Fleetwood Mac) with the crisp funk of Prince/Jam & Lewis.

Days Are Gone boasts several potential hits and their gig at Birmingham HMV Institute on December 5, booked before they hit it big, sees the Digbeth venue totting the hottest ticket in town. The self-titled third studio album from American outfit MGMT, creative duo Andrew VanWyngarden and Ben Goldwasser, is a rich concoction of psychedelic whimsy. It is certainly worth investigating if you are partial to such mavericks as Beck and Syd Barrett or Brian Eno's early solo work. It should be an interesting evening at Wolverhampton Civic Hall when MGMT play on Sunday night (October 13).

Less happy-go-lucky and more grown-up having experienced heartbreak, Eliza Doolittle returns with In Your Hands, an excellent pop album inspired by her break-up with a long-term boyfriend (Good Charlotte guitarist Benji Madden apparently).

If lead single Big When I Was Little

Justin Timberlake - LG Arena dates

Eliza Doolittle - broken-hearted

recall her breakthrough hits Skinny Genes and Pack Up, the core of her second album are break-up songs like Let It Rain and No Man Can.

Sounding mature beyond her 17 years, singer and pianist Birdy follows up her debut album of cover versions and hit rendition of Bon Iver's Skinny Love with a set of solid songs co-written by herself on the album Fire Within. Highlights include Light Me Up and likeable lilting All About You.

Birdy can appeal to both fans of X Factor pop and indie rock. She is worth checking out if you like such as Florence and the Machine, Kate Nash and Ellie Goulding.

Motorhead, who play at Wolver-hampton Civic Hall on November 19, return for their 21st album in 39 years. Lemmy restored to his greasy glory for a take-no-prisoners sonic assault called Aftershock.

Opening with the classic Motorhead sound on Heartbreaker, the powerhouse rockers barely let up the frenetic onslaught, although the bluesy Lost Woman Blues and Doors-ish Dust And Glass provide a contrast to the propulsive hard rock blizzard. Going To Mexico is cut from the same bourbon-soaked template as Ace of Spades, whilst Silence When You Speak To Me has veteran singer-bassist Lemmy at his menacing best.

Duggie to deliver musical memories

MUSIC hall authority and impresario Duggie Chapman hosts an afternoon of nostalgia in Cannock next week.

Thanks For the Memory takes a look back at stars from Music Hall to Variety, featuring more than 30 film clips of stars from the 30s and 40s.

Showtime is 2.30pm on Wednesday, October 16 at the Prince of Wales Centre, Church Street.

For tickets, at £8, call 01543 578762.

Mars aiming for a gig to Treasure

SLICK American R&B star Bruno Mars will be in concert at Birmingham NIA tomorrow (Friday).

With the success of most recent album Unorthodox Jukebox, more than 50 million single sales worldwide and 14 Grammy nominations, the 27-year-old from Hawaii has reached superstar status.

His hits include Treasure, Grenade and When I Was Your Man.

Powerful ballads sung in harmony

CHASE Harmony return to Cannock's Prince of Wales Centre this weekend with a selection of songs from across the decades.

The four-part harmony group will put their own stamp on powerful love songs and haunting ballads in a musical montage.

Tickets are £9. The show is at the Church Street venue tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday from 7.30pm. Call 01543 578762.

Ghosts from the past haunt elderly couple in a new play

War Horse gallops into Birmingham

ONE of the most popular plays of recent years finally arrives in Birmingham next week when the National Theatre's award-winning production of War Horse begins a three-and-a-half week residency at the city's Hippodrome theatre.

Adapted by Nick Stafford from the popular children's book by Michael Morpurgo, about a farm boy and his beloved horse who both find themselves on duty amid the horrors of the First World War, the play is still running in London's West End and was made into a film by Steven Spielberg.

Created

It is most famous for the incredible puppet horses and their life-like movement, created by the Hand-spring Puppet Company. This touring production of War Horse will be staged at the Hurst Street theatre from Wednesday, October 16, until Saturday, November 9.

On November 8 Michael Morpurgo will be appearing at the theatre giving an afternoon reading from the book, accompanied by musicians.

MAUREEN Lipman returns to Birmingham Rep, for the first time since Glorious in 2005, to star opposite voice of The Simpsons Harry Shearer in poignant New York comedy-drama Daytona from October 21 to 26

They play an elderly Jewish couple with a passion for ballroom dancing whose lives are thrown into turmoil by the arrival of a relative with news harking back to the Nazi death camps.

Hollywood

Oliver Cotton's new play has received acclaim and is coming to the refurbished Rep as part of its UK tour.

Meanwhile, Martin Shaw returns home to Birmingham to lead the cast in classic trial drama Twelve Angry Men at the Rep until October 19. This places TV's former Judge John Deed back in a legal setting, trying to persuade fellow jurors including Hollywood actor Robert Vaughan.

Another familiar US film and TV actor, Starsky himself, Paul Michael Glaser stars in Craig Revel Horwood's new version of I Was A Rich Man musical Fiddler On The Roof at the Grand, Tuesday to Saturday. The regular Royal Shakespeare Company audience will be bolstered by fans of former Doctor Who and

Haunted by the past - Maureen Lipman as Ellie in new play Daytona Broadchurch star David Tennant when he begins his stint as Richard II at Stratford-upon-Avon today (Thursday). It remains in repertoire until November 16 and will be screened live in cinemas on November 13.

Birmingham Royal Ballet stage their sumptuous version of Sleeping Beauty at the Hippodrome until Saturday whilst a version of the fairy tale on ice is skated by Imperial Ice Stars at Birmingham New Alexandra.

REVIEW

A full house is sent Wilde by Bad Boy rocker Marty

Marty Wilde and the Wildcats, Prince of Wales Centre, Cannock

AN evening of nostalgia, with a full-house made up of those of us of a certain age, was served up at The Prince of Wales by the ever-youthful-sounding Marty Wilde and his Wildcats.

It is true to say that his Wildcats have become more like domesticated moggies these days, but who cares? They can still rock!

The veteran 74-year-old star wowed the audience with a selection of his past hits, beginning with his own-penned hit, Bad Boy.

He reminded the retro-geers they were lucky to be teenagers at the infancy of The Rock 'n' Roll revolution.

He also included a section that he called 'Senior Citizens' Karaoke, although he admitted its inclusion was 'a chance to get his breath back'.

As is the general norm these days, the programme contained many tributes to other rockers, living and passed, much appreciated by those in attendance.

The whole evening was delivered in Marty's own, gentle style with lots of humour.

He hoped his audience had enjoyed their evening as much as he and the band had. Their reaction left him in no doubt that they had.

Atlantis

BBC1, 8.30pm

From the get-go, this series has been action-packed, with edge-of-the-seat adventure around every corner; there's certainly no time to draw breath between scenes, never mind nip out to make a cup of tea. This week, our heroes have to deal with the frightening sport of bull-leaping – and yes, what you're probably imagining right now is exactly what it is. Basically, Jason, Hercules and Pythagoras upset a nobleman and as punishment must evade a charging bull by vaulting over it – which is definitely easier said than done.

Lily James

Downton Abbey
ITV, 9pm

Well, last week's house party turned out to be rather more exciting than anyone expected, didn't it? Now the fallout appears to have opened up a whole new can of worms. Perhaps a break in London will help cheer everyone up. Actually, don't hold your breath on that because it looks as if the trip will give Sir John Bullock a chance to reveal his true colours; thankfully, Rose does find a knight in shining armour. Meanwhile, Lady Edith's relationship with Gregson continues to develop after he shares his plans with her - goodness only knows what her father will say when he finds out.

Constantine, Channel 5, 11pm

Exorcist John Constantine is cursed with the ability to see spirits stalking the Earth, and grudgingly takes on the forces of evil, hoping his actions will earn him a place in heaven. However, he is told he has terminal cancer and time for salvation is running out – unless a policewoman investigating her twin sister's death can find the key to saving his soul. Supernatural thriller, starring Keanu Reeves and Rachel Weisz. (2005)

TUESDAY

The Girl in the Park, BBC1, 11.25pm

A grieving mother withdraws from her friends and family after her three-year-old daughter disappears in Central Park. Fifteen years later she befriends an 18-year-old conwoman with a chequered past, and begins to believe the troubled teenager could be her own long-lost child. Drama, starring Sigourney Weaver. (2007)

WEDNESDAY

No Way Out, BBC1, 11.45pm

A navy officer unwittingly has an affair with a politician's mistress, and becomes involved in the investigation after she is murdered. However, he soon suspects the plan is to find a scapegoat rather than the real killer – and that he is the most likely candidate to take the fall. Political thriller, starring Kevin Costner. (1987)

Angels & Demons, Friday, Channel 5, 11pm

THURSDAY

Damn the Defiant!, Channel 4, 1.10pm

The commander of a British warship fighting in the Napoleonic campaign faces bitter opposition from his right-hand man, a cruel and sadistic officer hated by the crew. In a battle of wills between the pair, the captain's second-in-command tries to provoke his leader's wrath by tormenting his son, an officer on the vessel. Drama, starring Alec Guinness and Anthony Quayle. (1962)

FRIDAY

Bowfinger, ITV, 10.35pm

A struggling Hollywood producer comes up with a cunning plan to splice secretly filmed footage of a famous action star into his latest low-budget sci-fi movie to give it a veneer of quality. However, his efforts drive the bewildered actor into having paranoid delusions that aliens really have invaded the Earth. Comedy, starring Steve Martin and Eddie Murphy. (1999)

Angels & Demons, Channel 5, 11pm

Academic adventurer Robert Langdon is called in by the Vatican to deal with a crisis. The Pope has died and the four cardinals in line to be his successor have all been abducted by a mysterious sect that is threatening to murder them. Thriller sequel to The Da Vinci Code, with Tom Hanks and Ewan McGregor. (2009)

Pick of the Week

Guests try to find the right words for David

Here it is, just what the world needed – another comedy panel show. Yep, there are quite a few about at the moment, and new ones have to work doubly hard to make themselves stand out.

Luckily, Was It Something I Said? is already a cut above much of the rest of the opposition. After all, it's hosted by David Mitchell who, having appeared many times on Would I Lie to You? and QI, is well-qualified to pose the questions here.

The team captains are also very funny men indeed – Micky Flanagan and Richard Ayoade.

For those who missed last week's opening edition, the format is simple: two teams must answer questions based on quotations that can come from anywhere, including books, films, interviews and the internet.

Mitchell himself is probably the best person to explain more about it: "It's a quiz where people have to work out who said certain things or what certain people have said. So it's about celebrities, historical figures, current affairs and history."

"We've tried to make it jolly and irreverent and funny, but also a bit informative and interesting. It's an amusing way of watching some comedians trying to solve a quiz about famous people and vaguely impart some interesting information about them at the same time."

The show marks the first time Mitchell has hosted such a programme, and he admits it's harder work than it looks.

"Being the host is a very different role, chipping in some of the time, while managing the quiz and working out what to say to link the rounds. The great thing about being in the host's chair is that you can make yourself look so knowledgeable."

"But it can be tricky. Usually the panellists are people who are bright and want to talk and you need them to keep talking, so you can't slap them down hard because they might go quiet and then you're stuck. So it is my policy generally to let them talk and drift. Some of the best material comes when things are allowed to run and breathe."

"We wanted it off-the-cuff and as organic and natural as possible, so I tried not to be too school-masterly about things. Fortunately, I have no natural authority, so it's very easy for me to do that."

Mitchell would probably make a good panellist on this show – he even has a favourite quote.

"It's attributed to Voltaire, but people say it wasn't actually him... Either way it is a very wise thing – 'I disapprove of what you say, but I will defend to the death your right to say it'."

"I think that's a very important idea, especially for the internet. The idea too often is that people think those who say horrible things should be silenced rather than answered. I think we'd be a more healthy society if people used their freedom of speech to reply to and rebuke people who say things they hate rather than use the law to silence them."

This week, Micky is reunited with his Love My Country host Gabby Logan, while comedian Ed Byrne is the other guest panellist.

David Mitchell hosts Was It Something I Said?, Sunday, Channel 4, 10pm

The Gadget Show, Channel 5, 8pm

It's back for an 18th series, and will soon celebrate its 250th edition, but what makes The Gadget Show so watchable? Well, it could be the fact that as well as putting the latest innovations to the test, it explains them in a way that's accessible to even the most technologically challenged viewer. So, if you've been trying to get your head around the concept of this year's most talked-about piece of kit, Google Glass, all should become clear as Rachel Riley and Jason Bradbury check it out.

Stephen Fry: Out There, BBC2, 9pm

Stephen Fry is gay. We've known it ever since he first stepped into the spotlight as a young comedian back in the 1980s; it's something we're familiar with and, in fact, it would probably be fair to say that nobody really thinks about his sexuality any more. He's just Stephen Fry, that much-loved bloke off the telly. However, for some people, coming out isn't easy; in fact, it can cost them their lives. In this new, two-part documentary, Stephen is travelling the globe to find out how different countries and cultures regard homosexuality. He begins his journey close to home by meeting Elton John and David Furnish.

TUESDAY

Live International Football, ITV, 7.30pm

England face a potentially crucial contest this evening, as they host Poland at Wembley Stadium in their final Group H World Cup qualifier. There were a number of permutations that could affect the outcome of this group coming into the last two rounds of fixtures, which began with matches last Friday. However, one thing for certain is that Roy Hodgson's men will want to perform better than they did in the reverse fixture at Warsaw's National Stadium last October, which finished in a 1-1 draw. That original fixture had to be postponed until the following day due to a torrential downpour, and while the conditions were still not conducive to flowing football, the Poles arguably did a better job of adapting to the circumstances.

When Gastric Bands Go Wrong, Channel 5, 9pm

These days, gastric bands provide a quick fix for those desperate to spur on weight loss, and sure, we hear of success stories in the women's mags and on television chat shows, but rarely do we hear of the gastric bands gone wrong. And now you're in for a shock. This documentary reveals the stories of people who have suffered devastating consequences when their gastric bands and surgery didn't go according to plan, including 38-year-old David, who lost over 24 stone in two years after having a gastric bypass operation. Initially he was thrilled with the results, but when his skin failed to tighten, he was left with over five stone of excess skin. Now, he's struggling to find a surgeon willing to help him.

The One and Only Cilla Black, ITV, 9pm

Whether you remember first hearing her on the radio in the 1960s or seeing her on the TV in the 1980s and 1990s, there's no doubt that Cilla Black is a showbiz institution. Still, it may come as a shock to some fans to realise that it's now 50 years since she became a star. And ITV, the channel which gave us Surprise Surprise and Blind Date, couldn't let the anniversary pass without a celebration. Her old mate Paul O'Grady, is our host, while plenty of other famous friends, ranging from Amanda Holden to Ringo Starr, will either be dropping by in person or sending their best regards via video.

Britain's Secret Treasures, ITV, 8.30pm

Michael Buerk and Bettany Hughes are back for a new series, and this time the show really is living up to its title. The first run saw the programme-makers working with the British Museum's Portable Antiquities Scheme, which is responsible for all finds in England and Wales, but now Treasure Trove Scotland and the Ulster Museum are also on board. However, we're still in England for the first episode as broadcaster and anthropologist Mary Ann Ochota hears the story of a remarkable find in Lincolnshire. In 2010, recycling plant-worker Steve Allenby dug up several pieces of copper alloy, which were initially assumed to be pieces of unexploded munitions. In fact, they were from something older and much, much rarer.

FRIDAY

Walrus: Two Tonne Tusker – Natural World, BBC2, 9pm

There's been plenty of attention given to the difficulties of breeding pandas in captivity over the year, but they're not the only animals which present a challenge when it comes to reproduction. Pacific walrus are notoriously hard to breed in captivity and one person who knows this only too well is zoologist and marine mammal reproductive physiologist Holley Muraco. This documentary sees her head out to their breeding grounds in Alaska to see if she can find any inspiration in the wild.

Man Down

Channel 4, 9.30pm

Actor and comic Greg Davies isn't daft. He knows that there are worse things you could do than grab a handful of your equally successful mates and write a comedy starring them. So that's what he did. He's written and stars in this new series which is sure to please his fans no end. He stars as Dan, a teacher whose world seems to be at near-collapse, and his weird and wonderful best friends provide little respite. In this first episode, Dan has a bad day when he loses his trousers.

YOUR WEEKLY GUIDE TO HOME BUYING AND LETTING

Detached with four beds is ideal for a family

The interior is finished to a high standard throughout

The smart bathroom at the property in Lichfield Close

NUMBER 6 Lichfield Close, Great Wyrley is a very well presented four bedroomed detached home on a private road in a cul-de-sac.

It is for sale through Chase Independent at £250,000 with no chain.

It has an entrance hall, guest wc, lounge/diner, breakfast kitchen with a breakfast bar, electric double oven, gas hob with extractor hood over and a dishwasher, utility, family room/conservatory, master bedroom ensuite, three further bedrooms, a bathroom, gas central heating, double glazing, gardens, a driveway and a garage.

At the front of the property is a block paved driveway and slate display area, while at the rear is an enclosed low maintenance rear garden with paved and gravel patio areas, flower and shrub display borders, a shed, external lighting and a gated side access.

Contact Chase Independent on 01543 504234 or go online and visit www.chaseindependent.co.uk

Gorsey Lane, Cannock, (WS11)

For Sale: 4 Bedroom, Detached - Offers around £425,000

Presented to a high standard, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a deceptively large property which has been sympathetically extended to retain its original charm and character. This home benefits from an enviable location on the doorstep of Cannock Chase in the Shool Hill area of Cannock and is still within walking distance of Cannock town centre and by road to the M6, M6 toll and A5 within a few minutes' drive.

WHY USE C RESIDENTIAL TO SELL YOUR HOME ?

We understand you may be thinking that all Estate Agents are the same and you will more than likely have invited a few agents out to see what fees they charge and what they can offer. Below are just 3 reasons why we think you should speak with us but please feel free to contact any of our sales team to discuss what we can do for you

We maintain a strict NO SALE, NO CHARGE policy and even if you change your mind about selling we WILL NEVER try and charge our fee (even if we have agreed a sale and you have to pull out for personal reasons). People move house for many different reasons and sometimes their personal circumstances change and alter. With this in mind it is very important for us as a company that we should have NO HIDDEN FEES.

WE SELL MORE HOUSES THAN ANYONE ELSE IN THE AREA

We know that because an independent company assesses the market every quarter. In August 2013 C Residential were found to have sold more houses than anyone else for the seventh time in a row and had 39.6%*

If you are still not convinced that you should try us then give us only 4 weeks to show you what we can do. We will not try and tie you into a long contract and if we don't impress you then you are free to walk away. All we ask is for a 4 week sole agency contract.

One last thing Helping the people of Rugeley and surrounding areas find their dream home, the team at C Residential are committed to delivering the best in estate and letting agency services. We're dedicated in supporting our community, and are involved in various local projects including sponsorship of football teams and the Rugeley Town Traders Association. By buying, renting or selling your property through C Residential & C Lettings, you'll be helping us to support local businesses and keep our vibrant community alive - which, in the long run, benefits all of us.

Scheme to mobilise the housing market

ROB Brookes, mortgage services sales manager at DB Roberts property centre comments on the early start for the Help to Buy 2 scheme.

He says: “Consumers have grown accustomed to a limited supply of 95 per cent mortgages ever since the recession, so the news of a bumper delivery ahead of schedule will rightly cause a wave of excitement.

“The Help to Buy mortgage guarantee has a clear purpose and will answer a real need by giving options to first time buyers and those homeowners who have seen their equity eroded and been unable to make their next move.

Consumer “It is undoubtedly a welcome initiative from a consumer point of view.

“A key ambition over the next three years must be to re-establish 95 per cent lending as part of a balanced and normally functioning market.

“With the government behind it, the market looks set for continued growth which will hopefully prompt a greater level of overall transactions and more willingness from lenders to get behind those buyers with limited deposits.

“Clearly there will be a flurry of activity as lenders bring their implementation and delivery plans forwards, once the final details of the scheme are confirmed.

“The important thing is for consumers to get clear, consistent messages about the mortgage guarantees, how they work and where they are available.

“Rather than becoming an overnight sensation, it would be in everyone’s best interests if the scheme is managed in a steady and sustainable way.”

DB Roberts has nine branches serving Staffordshire, Shropshire and the West Midlands and mortgage advisers with knowledge of Help to Buy are available through any of them with initial mortgage advice being free of charge.

Property auctioneer is celebrating nomination

Recognised as one of the UK's top ten national auction houses – CPBigwood

PROPERTY agents CPBigwood have been shortlisted for Residential Auction House of The Year in The Negotiator Awards 2013.

Winners will be announced at a glittering prize giving ceremony on Tuesday, November 5, at the London Hilton on Park Lane and hosted by comic Hugh Dennis, star of BBC TV’s ‘Mock The Week’.

CPBigwood is now recognised as one of the largest property auction houses outside London and is firmly established in the top ten national auction houses in the UK.

Senior partner Rory Daly said:

“Numbers of lots and bidders at our auctions have grown hugely. Our last sale was attended by more than 700 people and raised a total of £9,131,050, with an 80 per cent success rate.

“Everyone likes recognition from their peers and so we are absolutely delighted with this nomination.”

Expanding

Despite the economic downturn, CPBigwood has continued to expand, taking on 20 new staff since the merger of Bigwood and Curry & Partners in June 2011, and the firm also acquired Leicestershire-based Lloyds Property Management as its East Midlands office in September 2012. Rory Daly added: “We have been expanding fast, taking on scores of new people and developing our office in the East Midlands and opening an office London.”

CP Bigwood offers the complete property service including commercial and residential agency, property management, valuations, auctions, agricultural, professional consultancy, building surveys and development and planning. The firm has offices in Birmingham, Stratford-upon-Avon, Henley-in-Arden, Shephed and London.

Rachel's on the ladder – through Help to Buy

RACHEL Botfield has just spent her first few days in her own home, a two-bedroom house on Lovell's Monarch Park development in Cannock.

She says that she wouldn't have been able to afford to buy her first new home without Help to Buy:

"Help to Buy certainly made this move possible," she says. "I had wanted to move for a while and had actually been thinking about renting but then I heard about Help to Buy."

"Also, I kept hearing from my friends who were renting about the problems they'd had with renting and how it wasn't even any cheaper than having a mortgage – in fact it was getting increasingly expensive."

"I'd heard about the Monarch Park site so I came to have a look round. I had a look at a few different houses but really liked the Dameswood."

"I had never been that keen on new-builds before but the Dameswood looks good and there is so much more space than most new homes."

"The location is perfect too, with my parents and my work really close by. Where I live now is actually just around the corner from where I grew up with my mum and dad."

"The whole process went very smoothly and Kim, the sales advisor, helped me through it all. She was really helpful and would answer any queries I had."

"She also used to call me while my house was being built to tell me how it was going."

Under the Government's Help to Buy scheme, the Government provides up to 20 per cent of the value of the property in an equity loan and buyers need only pay a five per cent deposit. This means that buyers need a mortgage for just 75 per cent of the house price.

Deposit

For example, Lovell's Knightswood two-bedroom home at Monarch Park is already great value at £125,000 but with Help to Buy, buyers have to find a mortgage for just £93,750 and a deposit of only £6,250.

Monthly mortgage payments for this sum are likely to be similar – or lower – than renting, which makes buying your own home an excellent investment right now. Lovell also has three-bedroom homes from £159,950 and four-bedroom homes from £175,000 at Monarch Park.

For more information, please call Lovell's Monarch Park development on 01543 877708 or go along to the development between 10am and 5pm every day to view the houses and speak to Lovell's sales advisor, who is based at the showhome on Limepit Lane.

Check your tyre tread and be safe on the roads

Worn tyres cause accidents, especially in poor weather

THE weather's turning and leaves are falling, and while it's never the most popular of subjects, tyre safety is paramount during the colder and wetter months.

Unfortunately, many drivers pay scant regard to tyre safety, as I experienced myself on returning to my car just a few days ago.

I spotted a very common sight these days – a very bald tyre. Not on my car, of course, but on the worn out-looking Peugeot parked next to me.

It was clearly illegal, and verging on downright dangerous.

I wondered whether to leave a note, and also whether my advice would be met by thanks or otherwise.

Muster

Just then the owner of the Peugeot arrived. She got in and began to reverse away – and I noticed a child's car seat in the back. That was reason enough to intervene.

I approached her open passenger window and asked, in the politest and most non-confrontational tone I could muster, if she knew she had a bald front tyre. "No, I didn't", came the friendly and receptive reply.

"I wondered if she'd noticed when it took three quarters of a mile to stop from 30mph in the wet."

"It's really quite bad, definitely illegal and that's three points if you get caught," I said.

Keen to avoid giving a lecture, I tried to frame it in a legal way to inject a sense of urgency. She thanked me and promised to get it looked at, before driving off.

Of course, what I'd really wanted to say was that, with a tyre in that condition, she was putting her own life, that of her family and other road users at a huge risk.

Stopping distances increase dramatically with worn tyres. Research by Continental Tyres has shown that tyres with less than 3mm of tread have dramatically reduced grip, never mind something approaching a racing slick.

In wet weather a worn tyre is much more susceptible to aquaplaning and, as anyone who's experienced it will know, once that happens you just have to sit back and wait for the trip to come back.

We all have a responsibility to drive in a manner that keeps us and our own passengers safe, and is mindful of other road users, but arguably there's an even greater requirement to ensure that our cars are fit for purpose too.

There may be a wide range of driving abilities on the road, but the one relative constant is the ability and safety of the modern car. It's our greatest safety asset and is therefore worth keeping that way.

Still a driving force in car sales after 40 years' service

THIS year marks a very special anniversary for one local establishment.

Cannock has a rich tradition of industry and business, and at the heart of this tradition stands the family run car sales enterprise Tudor Motors.

While other dealers may have come and gone, Tudor Motors has remained a reliable name in vehicle sales for more than a generation. This year marks an incredible 40 years since local businessman John Gibbs began trading at 67 Union Street, Bridgtown.

At that time, the country was still adjusting to decimalisation, petrol cost less than 40p a gallon and glam rock had taken over the pop charts. Many things have changed since then, however.

Customers from near and far continue to rely on Tudor Motors to provide a trustworthy, reliable service and excellent value for money.

Significant

Starting in 1973, with just a few cars, Mr Gibbs attributes his success to his relationship with the local community.

"This is a very significant milestone for us," he said. "And it is important that we thank all of our customers, past, present and future, for their patronage."

Breaking from the stereotypical car sales patter, Mr Gibbs explains how he has maintained such a loyal customer base in the face of fierce local competition.

"We like to listen to our customers so we can really provide for their needs, rather than just trying to secure a sale."

"I think it's this approach that has led to so much of our business coming from repeat

Tudor Motors is not the largest car sales in Cannock, but few have lasted even half as long. Their impressive longevity can be accredited to the unique personal approach which comes with a smaller, family run business.

Mr Gibbs works alongside his wife Janice and his son Peter.

In addition to the friendly, hassle free atmosphere that they have created at Tudor, the Gibbs' family have always placed emphasis on honest, hard work to secure their ongoing success.

Ethic

When founding his business, Mr Gibbs took only three days off during his first seven years – three Christmas days.

This extraordinary work ethic has allowed him to establish a business to be proud of, a business he will be proud to pass down to his son, a business that Cannock can be proud of.

The news may be awash with stories of economic downturn, job losses and failing businesses, but this is one success story to buck the trend.

Mom

 For my beautiful Mother who passed away peacefully with me beside her.

 She was the kindest, most loving person I have ever known, who devoted her life to looking after me, my Dad and my Children. We were her whole world and she gave us so much love, happiness and wonderful memories to treasure.

 Goodbye now my lovely Mom, be at peace and know that I will love and miss you every day of my life.

God bless and keep you safe.

Gillian.

Ava Mae

 My beautiful Daughter Ava, passed away September 28,
2013, aged 7 years.

 It would be so wonderful to hold you in my arms again and see your lovely smile, for you to kiss your Daddy always made my life worthwhile, you've left a hole within my heart that can never be filled, now we're apart, so sleep tight my little Angel until we meet again.

Love you, kisses and hugs.

Daddy.

Granddaughter

 My precious little sweetheart
your smile has gone forever.
We cannot kiss, touch or have a hug but you brought me so much joy and happiness in the short time we had together, you will always be in my heart and my shining star.

 Love and miss you, sleep tight.

 God bless, love, kisses and waves,

Nanny.

X X X
To our lovely little Niece and Cousin Ava.

 Our lives will never be the same without you, we will miss you always.

 Love you beautiful girl.
Your brokenhearted Auntie
Dawn, Uncle Jim, Jacob and Grace.

TITLEY
Ava Mae

 Fell asleep September 28,
2013, aged 7 years.

 Beautiful memories we have to treasure of Ava Mae, a little flower, lent not given, to bud on earth and will bloom in Heaven, you tried so hard to stay with us, but a cure was not to be, so God took you by the hand and whispered come to Me.

 In your short life you gave so much pleasure, we will remember you always, forget you never, sleep sweetly little one, Good night and God bless.

 Love from Aunties, Uncles and Cousins. The Evan's Family.

nee Evans

 Seventy-Nine years September 27, 2013.

 It's your birthday Syl, we haven't forgot, we loved you too much to ever forget.

 Love and God bless, Brothers, Sisters and Families. The Evan's Family.

SWINDELLS
Ann

 Today, October 12, is Your Birthday, and I miss you with all my heart, and we should not be apart.

 On that terrible tragic day 2012 the Twenty Six of May, when You sadly passed away.

 Your loving Husband Forever
Bill.

X X X
Mom

 In a graveyard gently sleeping, where flowers gently sway, lies a very precious Mother who we love and miss each day.

 She meant so very much to us, the pain still in our hearts, as we think of you today.

 Happy Birthday My Dearest Mother.

With Love Tracy and Tom.

NOTICE TO READERS. Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:
 1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with its Mother.
 2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
 3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree. Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

STAFFORDSHIRE County Council
ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 (AS AMENDED)
ROAD TRAFFIC (TEMPORARY RESTRICTIONS) ACT 1991
STONEHOUSE ROAD, RUGELEY
DIVERSION OF VEHICULAR TRAFFIC

NOTICE is hereby given that the Staffordshire County Council intend, not less than seven days from the date of this Notice, to make an Order the effect of which will be to prohibit any vehicle from proceeding in that length of Stonehouse Road, Rugeley between its junctions with Shooting Butts Road and Chasley Road unless the vehicle is being used in connection with the works. Pedestrian access will be maintained.

The preferred alternative route for traffic will be available via Shooting Butts Road, Chasley Road, Stonehouse Road and vice versa.

THE ORDER WILL COME INTO OPERATION ON 28 OCTOBER 2013, AND THE SAID WORKS WILL COMMENCE ON OR AS NEAR AS PRACTICABLE TO THAT DATE. IT IS ANTICIPATED THAT THE WORKS WILL BE COMPLETED BY 1 NOVEMBER 2013.

The Order will remain in force for a period of 18 months or until the private drainage repair works, which it is proposed to carry out on or near the road, have been completed, whichever is the earlier.

Six goals bring first victory of the season

Cannock 6 Canterbury 4
CANNOCK and Canterbury both came into their fourth game of the Pensons Premier Hockey League looking for a good result after each had started the season poorly.

The game's opening goal came within the first five minutes when a short corner was awarded to Cannock.

It was finished off by Nick Bandurak.

Cannock took a hold of the game with a three-goal spree before the break.

The scorers were Harry Jawanda, Andrew Appleton and Pete Jackson.

After the break Canterbury gave themselves a lifeline with a goal from captain Michael Farrer.

Cannock's David Devey crossed the ball low finding Canterbury's unfortunate Chris Laslett, who scored an own goal to make it 5-1.

Then Canterbury's Liam Foster, Michael Farrer and Alistair Bray pulled back three goals.

Cannock wrapped up the game with a sixth goal from Pete Jackson to give them their first league win of the season.

Douglas is so close to taking bout

GREAT WYRLEY ABC's Reece Roberts and Alistair Douglas met with mixed fortunes at a packed and hostile Darlston Town Hall on Saturday night.

Roberts, aged 17, in a warm up bout before the CYP championships on Sunday, met Sam Evans from the host club Wednesday ABC and dropped a paper-thin decision over three excellent rounds.

These two may meet again in the CYP Championships which start on Sunday.

Douglas, 23, picked up his first win at the second attempt when he out-pointed local favourite Nathan Simpson (Amphion ABC).

Tall Douglas kept his shorter foe at bay in the first round behind his long left jab as Simpson, roared on by an army of fans struggled to get close to Douglas.

Simpson seemed to run out of gas in the second round and Douglas took control and it was all Douglas in the last as he took a unanimous decision.

Peach of a kicker as all tries converted

Burntwood 45
Yardley & District 10

THIS game had six tries scored by six different players to keep Burntwood as the early pace-setters in league.

Will Peach added all the conversions, half of them from touchline kicks, plus a penalty goal to help maintain his side's impressive start to the season.

Not only the try count but also the yellow card count went against the visitors, who received three to the home side's one, Danny Poole picking up Burntwood's first of the season in the second half.

penalty from Peach on 16 minutes, having been short with another attempt three minutes earlier.

The home three-quarters eased their way into the game, James Langford going closest to a try after 20 minutes, but the first touchdown came via the forwards.

Peach's neat grub kick put them in good position in the visitors' 22. Jack Neale stole the line out and popped the ball to Dave Yardley, who scored from close range after 23 minutes.

Each side missed long range penalty attempts before a second Yardley player was sin binned on the half hour. Peach again put his side into the visitors' 22 with the touch finder.

Line out possession was sent out to the left for Ben Holt to go close then fast hands back right saw Matt Sishton score in the right corner.

Peach's excellent conversion made it 17-0 and the hosts looked set for a comfortable win.

However, Yardley hit back with a sustained spell of pressure.

Lock Ian Mapp rescued one situation near the clubhouse corner but the visitors eventually squeezed over in the opposite corner to open their account.

The next try, five minutes into the second period, was all the work of the forwards. They combined to drive into the visitors' 22.

Graham Shelley and Neale both drove for the line before hooker Poole stretched over for a try under the posts.

Ten minutes later Poole turned provider. A strong run towards the left corner dragged the defence across so that when he passed back inside it was dad Mark Poole who was in support to score.

Langford extended Burntwood's lead with a try in the right corner.

Peach again found a good touch kick to relieve Yardley pressure.

The line out ball was moved to Langford, who ran strongly down the right wing.

When he was closed down, possession was moved back across field for D. Poole to time a superb pass for Nick Peplow to run in unopposed.

Peach's final conversion provided the conclusion to the contest.

Drab Wolves pay the penalty in shoot-out

Wolves 0 Notts county 0 (Notts win 3-1 on penalties)
WOLVES finally ran out of luck and, as a result, the Johnstone's Paint Trophy last night.

A team which has continually picked off results while rarely convincing produced another fitful display in front of a paltry Molineux crowd and this time paid the price.

It took another penalty shoot-out to decide the contest, as it had in the previous round against Walsall. But against Notts County, not even Wolves' best player on the night, Carl Ikeme, could rescue them.

After a goalless draw which was drab for Wolves and hugely frustrating for County, the visitors only needed their first three spot-kicks to progress and they were confidently dispatched by Danny Haynes, Joss Labadie and Mark Fotheringham.

Leigh Griffiths opened the shoot-out with a precise score beyond keeper Fabian Spiehs' left hand, but after that the Wolves penalties reflected their overall performance.

First Bjorn Sigurdarson and then Kevin Foley blasted high over before new-boy James Henry steered his shot at a nice height for Spiehs to save and reward for sheer devotion a visiting County contingent you could literally count.

Those penalties were borne of the faulty technique of players whose confidence had been jangled by an uneasy night in which County had left much the better impression.

Chris Kiwomya's team

were much smoother and more fluent in possession, adding a riddle to the enigma of Wolves that is already puzzling head coach Kenny Jackett.

In a clear display of his enthusiasm to go all the way in a tournament his team had been favourites to win, Jackett fielded a strong XI complete with the midfield quartet which had established such commanding control at Colchester.

If Jackett expected a repeat he was sorely disappointed.

Wolves raised their tempo after a truly awful first half to threaten an improvement after the break - one which never quite materialised - and hinted at a winning goal over the last 20 minutes.

But by then, they had long been grateful to Ikeme for a string of saves that kept out the visitors' front pairing of Adam Coombes and Yoann Arquin - the best two were probably at the start of the second half which saw Ikeme defy them in one-on-one confrontations.

Richard Stearman leads the tributes to Wolves legend Peter Broadbent before kick-off at Molineux

PETER BROADBENT was described as "truly special" by the club he made great as Wolverhampton paid its final respects to him.

Wolves chief executive Jez Moxey offered a tribute to Broadbent, one of the greatest players in the club's history, who died last Tuesday at the age of 80. Moxey said: "Peter was one of the club's true greats. You don't inspire admiration from footballing legends such as George Best and Sir Alex Ferguson without being something truly special.

"Peter was a player who not only helped the team to some wonderful successes, but also entertained the crowds with his incredible skill and much-famed body sware.

Peter's wife Shirley, 78, attended the tribute to her late husband at Tuesday night's game against Notts County in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy with son Gary, 53, who lives in Bloxwich, and daughter Debbie, 57, from Tettenhall Wood.

Gary's two daughters, Rosie, 14, and Mollie, 11, were Wolves mascots.

Unlucky defeat due to missed chances

Birmingham Uni 2nd XI 1
Cannock Ladies 1st XI 0
CANNOCK were unlucky to suffer a 1-0 defeat at the hands of Birmingham students on Saturday.

A frustrating game saw Cannock miss opportunities, but offered some good performances, particularly player of the match Deakin.

Northampton Saints 1st 3

Cannock Ladies 2nd 1

Cannock found themselves 3-0 down at half-time.

After the break, Cannock came out fighting and got an early goal in the second half from captain Laura Thomas.

Cannock Ladies 1st 1

Cannock started the game well, keeping possession of the ball until Bloxwich took full advantage of a short corner. Cannock continued to fight and scored a goal with 10 minutes to go.

Stone 3rd 0

Cannock Ladies 4th 5

An opening goal in the first half by Jane Craddock gave Cannock the lead, with four subsequent goals in the second half, three by Craddock and one by Bethan Casey.

Cannock Ladies 5ths 1

Bloxwich 4ths 0

Cannock's got their second win of the season to push them up to third in the table.

Tries feast as Hornets get stung

Burntwood A XV 59

Telford Hornet 2nds 0

GOOD forward play allowed scrum half Rob Jones to pop the ball to flanker Matt Ford who went over for the try. Anthony Morgan converted.

This opened the floodgates with four more tries before the break from Zak Shingler, Ben Tranter (2) and Chris Smith with Morgan adding three more conversions.

Liam Smith scored his first senior try and three tries followed in quick succession, two for Elliot Woolley and Joe Cowling getting the last one. Morgan added three conversions.

Burntwood Development 74

St Leonards 2nds 3

Burntwood welcome Eccleshall to The Sportsway on Saturday for a M3WN fixture kicking off at 3pm.

The A XV are away to Lichfield 3rds and the Development XV host Bloxwich 2nds, both merit table fixtures.

Saddlers brought down by rocket hit

Walsall 0 Bradford City 2
BRADFORD City inflicted a third league defeat of the season on Dean Smith's team when they visited the Banks's Stadium.

Walsall had worked their way into the game after fighting off a powerful and menacing opening from Phil Parkinson's in-form outfit.

As half-time beckoned in an absorbing contest, the game was changed by a memorable moment from Kyle Reid. Saddlers full-back James Chambers had already produced some outstanding defending to restrict his impact.

But there was nothing he or any of his team-mates could do when he strode forward from midfield and unleashed a breathtaking left-foot rocket from 30 yards to fly past Richard O'Donnell. It was a goal even Saddlers fans felt privileged to witness.

Before the home team had any chance to get into a second-half rhythm, the visitors tightened their grip when James Hanson eluded Paul Downing and Andy Butler less than a couple of minutes after the restart.

Lockmen in first points from Pegs

Willenhall Town 1 Pegasus Juniors 1
A BATTLING performance from The Reds saw them take a deserved point, their first ever, from high-flying Pegasus Juniors.

The visitors made a bright start, hitting the post twice and putting in dangerous crosses which the home defence dealt with comfortably.

However, The Lockmen broke the deadlock with a fine 19th minute goal.

Matt Dorgan swept a ball out wide left to Dan Radford, his dangerous cross was flicked on to the Danny Campbell by Simon Laidley and he controlled the ball cleverly before committing the keeper and coolly sliding it home.

Steve Booth made a couple of fine saves as Juniors started the second half and they levelled on 45 minutes when a half clearance dropped to Zac Brimble 25 yards from goal, his first time effort bent and dipped wickedly, flying into the far top corner.

Six of the best take Brereton to the top

Premier Division

Brereton Social Lion, celebrating 25 years, go top of the league with a convincing 6-0 win over Yates Sports.

In search of their first ever champions shield, Stu Simpson, Tom Cunningham and Dan Stock-hall scored a goal each with a hat-trick for Reece Baker.

Rugeley Utd beat Dynamo Lamb 3-2 with two goals for Ross Perry and one from Dean Watkins.

Division One
AFC Jubilee beat CK Courtney 3-2. Steve Doyle scored an o.g. with the winning goal from Jamie Griffiths with four minutes to go. Why Not beat TNT 5-1.

The Chorley derby ended with The Drill beating Nelson Inn 4-1. Rob Lakin scored two and Dave Bedford and Tom Dixon adding one each. Harrisons beat Chase Spartans 5-3.

Division Two Cup
Hawkins Inex won local bragging rights by knocking out Cheslyn Hay 4-3 with two goals each for Scott Sandland and James Dudley.

Last season's losing finalists Victoria Athletic knocked out Trafalgar 6-2. Aaron Brown scored four goals and one each for Mark Wright and Peter Chee. Lea Hall knocked out AFC Slade 5-0. Colliers Arms beat Samson Blewitt 6-0.

Division Three Cup
Last seasons losing finalists, Winding Wheel, knocked out Jubilee 6-2 after extra time. Marc Necchi and Alex Fullard bagged two goals each and Tom Essex and Jack Bytheway scored one each.

AFC Railway easily knocked out Bloxwich Cow 12-1 and AFC Collier knocked out Castle 3-1 thanks to Andy Belcher, Glen Walker and an o.g.

Division Four Cup

Leaders Pear Tree came from a goal down to knock out AFC Fern 3-1 thanks to a Danny Woods hat-trick.

AFC Essington knocked out Cannock Ex 7-3 with goals from Glen Robinson, Ben Patler, Jack Bloomer, Ricky Power and Sean Carrols hat-trick, his 14th of the season.

Nest just edged out Prairie Farm 2-1 with goals from Paul Barry and a Adam Traatt penalty. Nags Head knocked out Woodys 7-2.

Pied Piper knocked out Rugeley Rgs 6-4 with two goals each for Gary Taylor and Steve Spinks and a goal each for Dave Brazier and Dan Stevens.

Manager of the month for September: Premier League. Craig Corrigan of Brereton Social Lion.

Division One. Darren Cummings of The Drill of Burnwood.

Division Two. Sid Smith and Mick Woods of Victoria FC.

Division Three. Matt Lovatt of King George V Casuals.

Division Four. Jon Green-smith of Pear Tree FC.

Referee of the month. Mark Smith.

Second-half comeback sees Trophy progress

Chasetown 2 Rugby Town 1
A CLASSIC game of two halves saw The Scholars progress in the FA Trophy to travel to Redditch United in the next round in a fortnight's time.

Craig Harris' men could not have wished for a worse start. After just four minutes, Ryan Price made a splendid pass to deny Sam Youngs, but from the resultant corner, Rugby skipper Alex Gudgey headed home unchallenged.

Chasetown were clinging on and created only one chance of levelling the score.

Paul Sullivan broke into the penalty area and flashed an effort across goal that Niall Cooper was equal to, flinging himself to his left to concede a corner.

A revitalised Chasetown came out in the second half, coinciding with the introduction of Lee Butler as a half-time substitute.

It took the Scholars just eight minutes to get back on level terms.

He may not have marked his first full appearance with a goal but loan striker Danny Griffiths certainly made an impact.

From the wide left hand side of the penalty area he cut in, battled his way past two Rugby defenders before sliding the ball into the path of Sullivan.

Chasetown were in the ascendancy with Rugby more and more on the back foot.

There was a touch of good fortune about the start of the move for the Scholars winning goal.

Danny Bragoli was looking to pick out a pass to the inside left channel but his firmly hit pass ricocheted off Town midfielder Richard Blythe into the path of Simon Brown on the right touchline.

Brown, who had a relatively quiet game, by his standards, made up for that with an inch-perfect cross into the path of substitute Theo Robinson, who timed his run to perfection to head beyond Cooper.

The visitors were not going to take the score lying down and David Kolodynski forced Price into another impressive save.

Then, when a Chasetown move broke down in midfield, Rugby had men over as they attacked before Grant Beckett's tackle to perfection inside the penalty box to clear the first danger and Jack Farmer blocked the follow-up.

Harris' men meet Redditch United away on October 19.

AN amateur player from Cannock is celebrating a trophy double after winning a national competition at the home of golf for the second successive year.

Chris Preston, of Cannock Park Golf Club, successfully defended the UK Public Course Championship title at St Andrews with a Stableford score of 35 points.

The 22-year-old plumber, who plays off 13, finished two points clear of runner-up Rodney Gallagher, of Hounslow Heath.

Preston said: "It wasn't played on the Old Course, it was on the Eden Course at St Andrews.

"But we still played on some of the same greens and fairways and it was a great experience.

"The last hole stands out in my memory. It was a 350-yard hole and I managed to drive it through the green and make birdie.

"At that stage I didn't know what everybody else's scores were, so that might have been crucial.

"Last year I won by eight, but this year it was closer."

Preston also won his category, division two, which is for players with handicaps between 11 and 16. The UKPCC tournament is for players from non-private members' clubs.

Chris Preston celebrates the successful defence of his UKPCC trophy

Poor start condemns Hayes to away loss

Boldmere St. Michaels 3 Heath Hayes 0

A SLOPPY first-half performance cost Hayes dearly against a strong Mikes side who are unbeaten in the league this season.

Mikes took the lead on eight minutes when George Lewis broke down the right and the Hayes defence failed to cut out his cross and Craig Bannister scored.

Three minutes later he doubled the lead when full-back James Parsonage made a hash of a headed clearance to give the striker a tap-in.

Hayes went close to reducing the deficit when Mitch Teece came within a whisker of turning home Chris Geddarts low driven cross.

The visitors looked as if they might make a game of it but once more poor defending allowed Ross Clarke too much room and he gave his side a three-goal interval lead.

Hayes bought on Joe Geldart for Dan Scragg and rearranged the midfield at the break and the youngster made an immediate impact superbly beating three players but his shot was inches to high. Dave Waple and Liam Degville both forced home keeper Dave Bevan into good saves.

DEAN SMITH has reaffirmed his belief in Walsall's 'long-term project' after agreeing a 12-month contract extension.

The Saddlers boss signed a new two-and-a-half year contract only 12 months ago and the latest deal will keep him at the Banks's until the summer of 2016.

Smith has overseen a turnaround since taking over with the club mired in the League One relegation zone in January 2011, last season leading them to a ninth-placed finish despite operating with one of the division's smallest playing budgets.

Under his guidance, the Saddlers have focused on bringing through young players from the academy.

"I'm pleased to extend my contract," said Smith.

"I said from the very start that this was always going to be a long-term project and we're still in the early stages of that."

This will be tough for team – Smith

HEDNESFORD Town boss Rob Smith has stressed his side will not take West Auckland Town lightly.

The Pitmen face the Northern Football League First Division outfit in their FA Cup Third Qualifying Round tie at Keys Park on Saturday.

Hednesford, who are top on goal difference of the Skryll North, face a team from two divisions below as they look to progress into the next round where a Conference giant could be lying in wait.

"From the outside we may be big favourites but we are not really looking at it like that," Smith said.

"West Auckland are unbeaten in what is a very strong league indeed, in my opinion it is not the equal of the same levels in the Midlands, it is a much higher standard, so we will not be fooled into believing we are massive favourites."

This game undoubtedly stands out as the classic banana skin tie and the Hednesford manager is under no illusions that the game represents another tough test. Smith added: "To me they are not a lesser side, they have players well capable of playing in our league. They will come to us pressure free and full of confidence so will prove very difficult to beat."

"The FA Cup is of the utmost importance."

The kick-off is 3pm.

Captain has scan on knee

WOLVES captain Sam Ricketts has been undergoing a scan on his knee after withdrawing from international duty.

But head coach Kenny Jackett is keeping his fingers crossed his skipper will be fit to rejoin their promotion push after the international break.

Ricketts has been playing with the problem for several weeks since Wales' 2-1 World Cup qualifying defeat away to Macedonia on September 6.

Although it forced him to miss his country's subsequent game, a 3-0 home defeat against Serbia, he has remained an ever-present for Wolves, playing every minute.

Now the 31-year-old defender is ruled out of Friday's return with Macedonia and Tuesday's qualifier which is away to Belgium.

Cannock 24 Bishops Castle 0

CANNOCK welcomed a new-look Bishops Castle side hoping to get back to winning ways in the league.

After a big win in the Vase last week, the Lions were looking to rebuild momentum for the season ahead.

Cannock eventually worked their way into the game. Good play from Joe Brookes, Darren Baugh and Brad Stanaway took the home side into the visitors 22. A turnover

The next try came from a turnover scrum and Craig MacDougall, found Humphreys, who left defenders chewing grass as he scored his second of the game.

A great offload to Brad Stanaway followed

Cannock now attempted to find the elusive bonus point. Castle made it tough for the Lions to break through.

MacDougall was making a great comeback with brilliant game management and some big hits in defence.

Dan Mayle was unlucky not to score after a brilliant interception was pulled back through an earlier discrepancy.

The last try came from more good turnover work from Freeman. The ball was fed to Jordan who found Scott Lathe.

Lathe took out the final man and passed to Sonny Stanaway, who had a tidy two-man overlap outside.

He passed to the impressive Matt Madsen, who raced towards the line, finally giving it to Murrell, who scored the all-important try. Cannock are now third in the league and look to be strongly placed.

The next three league games are pivotal to the season, starting with Bromyard away this week. Coaches Tomlinson and Stanaway were happy with the result and the squad should be over the moon with the victory, bonus point and the nil.

Man of the match went to Luke Jordan for a superb performance at No.9.

There's no excuse – Jackett

HEAD COACH Kenny Jackett refused to blame Wolves' missing thousands for their Johnstone's Paint Trophy exit – despite their lowest home crowd for more than 21 years.

Tuesday night's second-round tie against Notts County, which was televised live on Sky, attracted just 7,166.

It was Molineux's lowest competitive gate since September 30, 1992, when 3,091 watched a 2-0 win over Peterborough in the Anglo Italian Cup.

The gate was around a third of Wolves' League One home average and made for a low-key backdrop to the tribute to Molineux legend Peter Broadbent.

But the head coach said the lack of support had nothing to do with his side's toothless performance as they struggled in a goalless draw before going out 3-1 on penalties with Bjorn Sigurdsson, Kevin Foley and James Henry all missing their spot-kicks.

Jackett said: "Playing on such a fantastic pitch in a great stadium is motivation enough. I saw enough motivation but not always enough understanding or quality."

Pics are back in the run for Cup

RUSHALL were have been reinstated in the FA Cup after Gainsborough Trinity were kicked out.

The Pics have been handed a reprieve after Trinity were axed for fielding ineligible Lincoln City loanee Jordan Thomas in their 2-0 win last week.

Gainsborough are appealing but are unlikely to succeed.

IT'S HARD WORK AS PITMEN POWER ON

Hednesford Town 4 Gloucester City 1

HEDNESFORD Town were able to remain top of the Skryll North, although they were made to work hard for it

They met a Gloucester City side which battled hard to try to end The Pitmen's unbeaten home run. Before the game Elliott Durrell picked up his well-deserved Skryll North Player of the Month award for September from Conference representative Colin Peake.

In a quiet opening period the home side were the closest to breaking the deadlock when hotshot Durrell saw a shot-come-cross go wide at the far post with Michael Lennon unable to get on the end of it.

Hednesford were indebted to goalkeeper Dan Crane in the 35th minute as he smothered a low Will Morford effort after Ben Bailey made a rare error in giving away possession to the striker.

Vital

This proved to be a vital save as four minutes later the home side were ahead when Jamey Osborne cut inside and unleashed a low right-footed effort into the net via the post.

Two minutes before the half-time whistle it was 2-0. Osborne picked up the ball 30 yards out and drove forward through the Gloucester defence before easily picking his spot.

Hednesford made a slow start to the second half and the visitors were almost presented with an opportunity to pull a goal back when Crane handled John Disney's back pass.

Fortunately the wall did its job and the free kick just outside the penalty area was blocked.

Gloucester were back in it though in the 53rd minute.

A good through-ball caught the Hednesford defence square and with Scott Wilson through on goal Disney felled him in the box.

City's Tyler Weir converted from the spot to make it 2-1.

Any chance of a comeback from the visitors was snuffed out in the 80th minute, though, as Hednesford were awarded a penalty for a foul on Francino Francis.

The industrious Osborne once again took on the Gloucester backline and his cross picked out an unmarked Neil Harvey.

The Pitmen now have a week's break from action before hosting West Auckland Town at Keys Park next Saturday in the FA Cup Third Qualifying Round, 3pm kick off.

Colin Peake presents Elliott Durrell with his award as the Skryll Conference North player of the month for September
